A PLANNED COURSE FOR:

_____Advanced Placement United States History_____

Curriculum writing committee:
Nicholas Quaglia

Grade Level: 11/12

Date of Board Approval: _____2024_____

Course Grading Scale for AP US History

Total Points earned:

Unit Tests (2-3per quarter)	70-80 points per test
Essays (1-2 per marking period)	50 points per essay
Homework/Classwork	10-20 points per assignment
Projects/Presentations	50-80 points per project

Curriculum Map

Overview:

This course provides an overview of American history from the Pre-Columbian Native American world through to modern times. The course includes examination and analysis of political, social, geographic, economic, and cultural events throughout the course timeline. Students will be required to perform writing exercises including essays (LEQ) and document based questions(DBQ), create projects and presentations using multimedia tools, and analyze and evaluate various issues and events in United States history. Students should be aware that this course is similar to a college-level freshman history class. The workload, writing assignments, content, and grading will be presented in a manner consistent in a college setting. All students are expected to take the national AP United States History exam in May.

Time/Credit for the Course: One full school year, meeting daily for 46 minutes / 1 credit

Goals:

Marking Period 1: Overview based on 45 days: Periods 1, 2, and 3 in the AP United History Course Framework:

Period 1 (1491-1607)- 10 days

- Contextualizing Period 1
- Native American societies before European contact
- European Exploration in the Americas
- Columbian Exchange, Spanish Exploration, and Conquest
- Labor, Slavery, and Caste in the Spanish Colonial System

- The End of the Cold War
- A Changing Economy
- Migration and Immigration in the 1990s and 2000

Unit 10-Post AP Test Presentations and Assignments-approx. 20 Days

Big Ideas:

According to the Advanced Placement United States History course framework, themes serve as the connective tissue of the course and enable students to create meaningful connections across units. They are often broader ideas that become threads that run throughout the course. Revisiting them and applying them in a variety of contexts helps students to develop deeper conceptual understanding. Below are the themes of the course and a brief description of each.

THEME 1: AMERICAN AND NATIONAL IDENTITY (NAT)

This theme focuses on how and why definitions of American and national identity and values have developed among the diverse and changing population of North America as well as on related topics, such as citizenship, constitutionalism, foreign policy, assimilation, and American exceptionalism.

THEME 2: WORK, EXCHANGE, AND TECHNOLOGY (WXT)

This theme focuses on the factors behind the development of systems of economic exchange, particularly the role of technology, economic markets, and government.

THEME 3: GEOGRAPHY AND THE ENVIRONMENT (GEO)

This theme focuses on the role of geography and both the natural and human-made environments in the social and political developments in what would become the United States.

THEME 4: MIGRATION AND SETTLEMENT (MIG)

This theme focuses on why and how the various people who moved to and within the United States both adapted to and transformed their new social and physical environments.

THEME 5: POLITICS AND POWER (PCE)

This theme focuses on how different social and political groups have influenced society and government in the United States as well as how political beliefs and institutions have changed over time.

THEME 6: AMERICA IN THE WORLD (WOR)

This theme focuses on the interactions between nations that affected North American history in the colonial period and on the influence of the United States on world affairs.

THEME 7: AMERICAN AND REGIONAL CULTURE (ARC)

This theme focuses on the how and why national, regional, and group cultures developed and changed as well as how culture has shaped government policy and the economy.

THEME 8: SOCIAL STRUCTURES (SOC)

This theme focuses on how and why systems of social organization develop and change as well as the impact that these systems have on the broader society.

SAMPLE INSTRUCTIONAL ACTIVITIES

The sample activities on this page are optional and are offered to provide possible ways to incorporate instructional approaches into the classroom. Teachers do not need to use these activities and are free to alter or edit them. The examples below were developed in partnership with teachers from the AP community to share ways that they approach teaching some of the topics in this unit. Please refer to the Instructional Approaches section beginning on p. 217 for more examples of activities and strategies.

Activity	Topic	Sample Activity
1	1.2	Shared Inquiry Provide students with a selection of primary and secondary sources that highlight various aspects of Native American societies before European contact. In groups, ask students to formulate responses to Unit 1: Learning Objective B, Explain how and why various native populations in the period before European contact interacted with the natural environment in North America , and present their ideas to the class. Then lead a whole-group discussion to develop understanding of the complexity of the societies that were in place prior to European contact.
2	1.4	Guided Discussion Ask students to brainstorm the causes of the Columbian Exchange and its effect on Europe and the Americas in the time period after 1492. Through small- and whole-group discussion, ask students to identify the positive and negative effects of the Columbian Exchange.
3	1.6	Quickwrite As preparation for the free-response questions on the AP Exam, have students write claims in response to Unit 1: Learning Objective F, Explain how and why European and Native American perspectives of others developed and changed in the period . Ask a few students to volunteer to share their claims. Debrief by discussing the strengths and areas for improvement for each claim with the class.

Unit Planning Notes

Use the space below to plan your approach to the unit. Consider how you want to pace the unit; which specific historical figures, groups, or events you will use to illustrate the concepts noted in the historical development statements; where you will incorporate writing assignments; and which primary and secondary sources you will use.

TOPIC 1.1

Contextualizing Period 1

SUGGESTED SKILL Contextualization4A

Identify and describe a historical context for a specific historical development or process.

Spend a class period helping students understand some contexts for this unit. Considering this unit's key concepts (previewed below), select one or two for which your students will most need context.

To understand context, your students could examine:

- Change from and/or continuity with preceding historical developments.
- Similarities and/or differences with contemporaneous historical developments in different regions or geographical areas.

Whenever possible, draw upon students' relevant prior knowledge, and anchor this contextualization lesson in historical source material of varying formats such as visuals, data, or written texts, or conduct an activity that engages students in exploring context.

Required Course Content

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 1: Learning Objective A

Explain the context for European encounters in the Americas from 1491 to 1607.

PREVIEW: UNIT 1 KEY CONCEPTS

KC-1.1

As native populations migrated and settled across the vast expanse of North America over time, they developed distinct and increasingly complex societies by adapting to and transforming their diverse environments.

KC-1.1.1

Different native societies adapted to and transformed their environments through innovations in agriculture, resource use, and social structure.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 1: Learning Objective A

Explain the context for European encounters in the Americas from 1491 to 1607.

PREVIEW: UNIT 1 KEY CONCEPTS

KC-1.2

Contact among Europeans, Native Americans, and Africans resulted in the Columbian Exchange and significant social, cultural, and political changes on both sides of the Atlantic Ocean.

KC-1.2.I

European expansion into the Western Hemisphere generated intense social, religious, political, and economic competition and changes within European societies.

KC-1.2.II

The Columbian Exchange and development of the Spanish Empire in the Western Hemisphere resulted in extensive demographic, economic, and social changes.

KC-1.2.III

In their interactions, Europeans and Native Americans asserted divergent worldviews regarding issues such as religion, gender roles, family, land use, and power.

TOPIC 1.2

Native American Societies Before European Contact

Required Course Content

THEMATIC FOCUS

Geography and the Environment GEO

Geographic and environmental factors, including competition over and debates about natural resources, shape the development of America and foster regional diversity. The development of America impacts the environment and reshapes geography, which leads to debates about environmental and geographic issues.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 1: Learning Objective B

Explain how and why various native populations in the period before European contact interacted with the natural environment in North America.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTS

KC-1.1.I.A

The spread of maize cultivation from present-day Mexico northward into the present-day American Southwest and beyond supported economic development, settlement, advanced irrigation, and social diversification among societies.

KC-1.1.I.B

Societies responded to the aridity of the Great Basin and the grasslands of the western Great Plains by developing largely mobile lifestyles.

KC-1.1.I.C

In the Northeast, the Mississippi River Valley, and along the Atlantic seaboard, some societies developed mixed agricultural and hunter-gatherer economies that favored the development of permanent villages.

KC-1.1.I.D

Societies in the Northwest and present-day California supported themselves by hunting and gathering, and in some areas developed settled communities supported by the vast resources of the ocean.

SUGGESTED SKILL

 Developments and Processes

1.A

Identify a historical concept, development, or process.

SUGGESTED SKILL

 Developments and Processes

1.A

Identify a historical concept, development, or process.

TOPIC 1.3 European Exploration in the Americas

Required Course Content

THEMATIC FOCUS

America in the World WOR

Diplomatic, economic, cultural, and military interactions between empires, nations, and peoples shape the development of America and America's increasingly important role in the world.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 1: Learning Objective C

Explain the causes of exploration and conquest of the New World by various European nations.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTS

KC-1.2.1.A

European nations' efforts to explore and conquer the New World stemmed from a search for new sources of wealth, economic and military competition, and a desire to spread Christianity.

TOPIC 1.4

Columbian Exchange, Spanish Exploration, and Conquest

SUGGESTED SKILL

 Claims and Evidence in Sources

3.A

Identify and describe a claim and/or argument in a text-based or non-text-based source.

Required Course Content

THEMATIC FOCUS

Geography and the Environment GEO

Geographic and environmental factors, including competition over and debates about natural resources, shape the development of America and foster regional diversity. The development of America impacts the environment and reshapes geography, which leads to debates about environmental and geographic issues.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 1: Learning Objective D

Explain causes of the Columbian Exchange and its effect on Europe and the Americas during the period after 1492.

KC-1.2.I.B

The Columbian Exchange brought new crops to Europe from the Americas, stimulating European population growth, and new sources of mineral wealth, which facilitated the European shift from feudalism to capitalism.

KC-1.2.I.C

Improvements in maritime technology and more organized methods for conducting international trade, such as joint-stock companies, helped drive changes to economies in Europe and the Americas.

KC-1.2.II.A

Spanish exploration and conquest of the Americas were accompanied and furthered by widespread deadly epidemics that devastated native populations and by the introduction of crops and animals not found in the Americas.

SUGGESTED SKILL

 Making Connections

TOPIC 1.5

Labor, Slavery, and Caste in the Spanish Colonial System

Required Course Content

THEMATIC FOCUS

Social Structures soc

Social categories, roles, and practices are created, maintained, challenged, and transformed throughout American history, shaping government policy, economic systems, culture, and the lives of citizens.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 1: Learning Objective E

Explain how the growth of the Spanish Empire in North America shaped the development of social and economic structures over time.

KC-1.2.II.B

In the encomienda system, Spanish colonial economies marshaled Native American labor to support plantation-based agriculture and extract precious metals and other resources.

KC-1.2.II.C

European traders partnered with some West African groups who practiced slavery to forcibly extract slave labor for the Americas. The Spanish imported enslaved Africans to labor in plantation agriculture and mining.

KC-1.2.II.D

The Spanish developed a caste system that incorporated, and carefully defined the status of, the diverse population of Europeans, Africans, and Native Americans in their empire.

TOPIC 1.6

Cultural Interactions Between Europeans, Native Americans, and Africans

Required Course Content

THEMATIC FOCUS

America in the World WOR

Diplomatic, economic, cultural, and military interactions between empires, nations, and peoples shape the development of America and America's increasingly important role in the world.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 1: Learning Objective F

Explain how and why European and Native American perspectives of others developed and changed in the period.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTS

KC-1.2.III

In their interactions, Europeans and Native Americans asserted divergent worldviews regarding issues such as religion, gender roles, family, land use, and power.

KC-1.2.III.A

Mutual misunderstandings between Europeans and Native Americans often defined the early years of interaction and trade as each group sought to make sense of the other. Over time, Europeans and Native Americans adopted some useful aspects of each other's culture.

KC-1.2.III.B

As European encroachments on Native Americans' lands and demands on their labor increased, native peoples sought to defend and maintain their political sovereignty, economic prosperity, religious beliefs, and concepts of gender relations through diplomatic negotiations and military resistance.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 1: Learning Objective F

Explain how and why European and Native American perspectives of others developed and changed in the period.

KC-1.2.III.C

Extended contact with Native Americans and Africans fostered a debate among European religious and political leaders about how non-Europeans should be treated, as well as evolving religious, cultural, and racial justifications for the subjugation of Africans and Native Americans.

TOPIC 1.7

Causation in Period 1

SUGGESTED SKILL

 Argumentation6.A

Make a historically defensible claim.

The final topic in this unit focuses on the skill of argumentation and so provides an opportunity for your students to draw upon the key concepts and historical developments they have studied in this unit. Using evidence relevant to this unit's key concepts, students should practice the suggested skill for this topic.

1	2.2	Graphic Organizer Ask students to design a graphic organizer, such as a brain web or a comparison table, to gather information about the causes for exploration and the effects of conquest by the Dutch, English, French, and Spanish in North America. Then, in a whole-group discussion, ask students to identify similarities and differences among the European nations and draw conclusions about exploration and colonization.
2	2.4	Create Representations Give students a blank world map and several data sets, such as raw materials, manufactured goods, and enslaved peoples, and have them create a map that identifies the lanes of transatlantic trade, the exchanges, and the size and scope of the British Empire. Ask them to identify trends and patterns and draw conclusions about the Atlantic world.
3	2.6	Jigsaw This strategy can be used to facilitate understanding of the various causes and effects of slavery in the British colonial regions. Assign students to an “expert” group on a colonial region and have them use their textbooks and primary sources to build a picture of slavery there. Then, arrange students into groups where all region “experts” share their information with other students. As a whole group, debrief similarities and differences among the regions with regard to slavery.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 2: Learning Objective A

Explain the context for the colonization of North America from 1607 to 1754.

PREVIEW: UNIT 2 KEY CONCEPTS

KC-2.1

Europeans developed a variety of colonization and migration patterns, influenced by different imperial goals, cultures, and the varied North American environments where they settled, and they competed with each other and American Indians for resources.

KC-2.1.I

Spanish, French, Dutch, and British colonizers had different economic and imperial goals involving land and labor that shaped the social and political development of their colonies as well as their relationships with native populations.

KC-2.1.II

In the 17th century, early British colonies developed along the Atlantic coast, with regional differences that reflected various environmental, economic, cultural, and demographic factors.

LEARNING OBJECTIVEUnit 2: Learning Objective A

Explain the context for the colonization of North America from 1607 to 1754.

PREVIEW: UNIT 2 KEY CONCEPTSKC-2.1.III

Competition over resources between European rivals and American Indians encouraged industry and trade and led to conflict in the Americas.

KC-2.2

The British colonies participated in political, social, cultural, and economic exchanges with Great Britain that encouraged both stronger bonds with Britain and resistance to Britain's control.

KC-2.2.I

Transatlantic commercial, religious, philosophical, and political exchanges led residents of the British colonies to evolve in their political and cultural attitudes as they became increasingly tied to Britain and one another.

KC-2.2.II

Like other European empires in the Americas that participated in the Atlantic slave trade, the English colonies developed a system of slavery that reflected the specific economic, demographic, and geographic characteristics of those colonies.

SUGGESTED SKILL

*Developments
and Processes1.BExplain a historical concept, development, or process.TOPIC 2.2*European Colonization*Required Course Content*THEMATIC FOCUS*Migration and Settlement MIG

Push and pull factors shape immigration to and migration within America, and the demographic change as a result of these moves shapes the migrants, society, and the environment.

LEARNING OBJECTIVEUnit 2: Learning Objective B

Explain how and why various European colonies developed and expanded from 1607 to 1754.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTSKC-2.1.I.A

Spanish efforts to extract wealth from the land led them to develop institutions based on subjugating native populations, converting them to Christianity, and incorporating them, along with enslaved and free Africans, into Spanish colonial society.

KC-2.1.I.B

French and Dutch colonial efforts involved relatively few Europeans and relied on trade alliances and intermarriage with American Indians to build economic and diplomatic relationships and acquire furs and other products for export to Europe.

KC-2.1.I.C

English colonization efforts attracted a comparatively large number of male and female British migrants, as well as other European migrants, all of whom sought social mobility, economic prosperity, religious freedom, and improved living conditions. These colonists focused on agriculture and settled on land taken from Native Americans, from whom they lived separately.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 2: Learning Objective C

Explain how and why environmental and other factors shaped the development and expansion of various British colonies that developed and expanded from 1607 to 1754.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTS

KC-2.1.II.A

The Chesapeake and North Carolina colonies grew prosperous exporting tobacco—a labor-intensive product initially cultivated by white, mostly male indentured servants and later by enslaved Africans.

KC-2.1.II.B

The New England colonies, initially settled by Puritans, developed around small towns with family farms and achieved a thriving mixed economy of agriculture and commerce.

KC-2.1.II.C

The middle colonies supported a flourishing export economy based on cereal crops and attracted a broad range of European migrants, leading to societies with greater cultural, ethnic, and religious diversity and tolerance.

KC-2.1.II.D

The colonies of the southern Atlantic coast and the British West Indies used long growing seasons to develop plantation economies based on exporting staple crops. They depended on the labor of enslaved Africans, who often constituted the majority of the population in these areas and developed their own forms of cultural and religious autonomy.

LEARNING OBJECTIVEUnit 2: Learning Objective C

Explain how and why environmental and other factors shaped the development and expansion of various British colonies that developed and expanded from 1607 to 1754.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTSKC-2.1.II.E

Distance and Britain's initially lax attention led to the colonies creating self-governing institutions that were unusually democratic for the era. The New England colonies based power in participatory town meetings, which in turn elected members to their colonial legislatures; in the southern colonies, elite planters exercised local authority and also dominated the elected assemblies.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 2: Learning Objective D

Explain causes and effects of transatlantic trade over time.

KC-2.1.III.A

An Atlantic economy developed in which goods, as well as enslaved Africans and American Indians, were exchanged between Europe, Africa, and the Americas through extensive trade networks. European colonial economies focused on acquiring, producing, and exporting commodities that were valued in Europe and gaining new sources of labor.

KC-2.1.III.B

Continuing trade with Europeans increased the flow of goods in and out of American Indian communities, stimulating cultural and economic changes and spreading epidemic diseases that caused radical demographic shifts.

KC-2.2.I.C

The British government increasingly attempted to incorporate its North American colonies into a coherent, hierarchical, and imperial structure in order to pursue mercantilist economic aims, but conflicts with colonists and American Indians led to erratic enforcement of imperial policies.

SUGGESTED SKILL

 *Sourcing and Situation2.A

Identify a source's point of view, purpose, historical situation, and/or audience.

TOPIC 2.5

Interactions Between American Indians and Europeans

Required Course Content

THEMATIC FOCUSAmerica in the World WOR

Diplomatic, economic, cultural, and military interactions between empires, nations, and peoples shape the development of America and America's increasingly important role in the world.

LEARNING OBJECTIVEUnit 2: Learning Objective E

Explain how and why interactions between various European nations and American Indians changed over time.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTSKC-2.1.III.C

Interactions between European rivals and American Indian populations fostered both accommodation and conflict. French, Dutch, British, and Spanish colonies allied with and armed American Indian groups, who frequently sought alliances with Europeans against other American Indian groups.

KC-2.1.III.E

British conflicts with American Indians over land, resources, and political boundaries led to military confrontations, such as Metacom's War (King Philip's War) in New England.

KC-2.1.III.F

American Indian resistance to Spanish colonizing efforts in North America, particularly after the Pueblo Revolt, led to Spanish accommodation of some aspects of American Indian culture in the Southwest.

TOPIC 2.6

Slavery in the British Colonies

SUGGESTED SKILL

 Making Connections

5.A

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 2: Learning Objective F

Explain the causes and effects of slavery in the various British colonial regions.

KC-2.2.II.A

All the British colonies participated to varying degrees in the Atlantic slave trade due to the abundance of land and a growing European demand for colonial goods, as well as a shortage of indentured servants. Small New England farms used relatively few enslaved laborers, all port cities held significant minorities of enslaved people, and the emerging plantation systems of the Chesapeake and the southern Atlantic coast had large numbers of enslaved workers, while the great majority of enslaved Africans were sent to the West Indies.

KC-2.2.II.B

As chattel slavery became the dominant labor system in many southern colonies, new laws created a strict racial system that prohibited interracial relationships and defined the descendants of African American mothers as black and enslaved in perpetuity.

THEMATIC FOCUSSocial Structures soc

Social categories, roles, and practices are created, maintained, challenged, and transformed throughout American history, shaping government policy, economic systems, culture, and the lives of citizens.

LEARNING OBJECTIVEUnit 2: Learning Objective G

Explain how enslaved people responded to slavery.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTSKC-2.2.II.C

Africans developed both overt and covert means to resist the dehumanizing nature of slavery and maintain their family and gender systems, culture, and religion.

TOPIC 2.7

Colonial Society and Culture

SUGGESTED SKILL

 Developments and Processes

1.A

Identify a historical concept, development, or process.

Required Course Content

THEMATIC FOCUSAmerican and Regional Culture ARC

Creative expression, demographic change, philosophy, religious beliefs, scientific ideas, social mores, and technology shape national, regional, and group cultures in America, and these varying cultures often play a role in shaping government policy and developing economic systems.

LEARNING OBJECTIVEUnit 2: Learning Objective H

Explain how and why the movement of a variety of people and ideas across the Atlantic contributed to the development of American culture over time.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTSKC-2.2.1.A

The presence of different European religious and ethnic groups contributed to a significant degree of pluralism and intellectual exchange, which were later enhanced by the first Great Awakening and the spread of European Enlightenment ideas.

KC-2.2.1.B

The British colonies experienced a gradual Anglicization over time, developing autonomous political communities based on English models with influence from intercolonial commercial ties, the emergence of a transatlantic print culture, and the spread of Protestant evangelicalism.

THEMATIC FOCUSAmerican and National Identity NAT

The development of and debates about democracy, freedom, citizenship, diversity, and individualism shape American national identity, cultural values, and beliefs about American exceptionalism, and in turn, these ideas shape political institutions and society. Throughout American history, notions of national identity and culture have coexisted with varying degrees of regional and group identities.

LEARNING OBJECTIVEUnit 2: Learning Objective I

Explain how and why the different goals and interests of European leaders and colonists affected how they viewed themselves and their relationship with Britain.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTSKC-2.1.III.D

The goals and interests of European leaders and colonists at times diverged, leading to a growing mistrust on both sides of the Atlantic. Colonists, especially in British North America, expressed dissatisfaction over issues including territorial settlements, frontier defense, self-rule, and trade.

KC-2.2.I.D

Colonists' resistance to imperial control drew on local experiences of self-government, evolving ideas of liberty, the political thought of the Enlightenment, greater religious independence and diversity, and an ideology critical of perceived corruption in the imperial system.

TOPIC 2.8

Comparison in Period 2

The final topic in this unit focuses on the skill of argumentation and so provides an opportunity for your students to draw upon the key concepts and historical developments they have studied in this unit. Using evidence relevant to this unit's key concepts, students should practice the suggested skill for this topic.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 2: Learning Objective J

Compare the effects of the development of colonial society in the various regions of North America.

REVIEW: UNIT 2 KEY CONCEPTS

KC-2.1

Europeans developed a variety of colonization and migration patterns, influenced by different imperial goals, cultures, and the varied North American environments where they settled, and they competed with each other and American Indians for resources.

KC-2.1.I

Spanish, French, Dutch, and British colonizers had different economic and imperial goals involving land and labor that shaped the social and political development of their colonies as well as their relationships with native populations.

KC-2.1.II

In the 17th century, early British colonies developed along the Atlantic coast, with regional differences that reflected various environmental, economic, cultural, and demographic factors.

KC-2.1.III

Competition over resources between European rivals and American Indians encouraged industry and trade and led to conflict in the Americas.

LEARNING OBJECTIVEUnit 2: Learning Objective J

Compare the effects of the development of colonial society in the various regions of North America.

REVIEW: UNIT 2 KEY CONCEPTSKC-2.2

The British colonies participated in political, social, cultural, and economic exchanges with Great Britain that encouraged both stronger bonds with Britain and resistance to Britain's control.

KC-2.2.I

Transatlantic commercial, religious, philosophical, and political exchanges led residents of the British colonies to evolve in their political and cultural attitudes as they became increasingly tied to Britain and one another.

KC-2.2.II

Like other European empires in the Americas that participated in the Atlantic slave trade, the English colonies developed a system of slavery that reflected the specific economic, demographic, and geographic characteristics of those colonies.

SAMPLE INSTRUCTIONAL ACTIVITIES

The sample activities on this page are optional and are offered to provide possible ways to incorporate instructional approaches into the classroom. Teachers do not need to use these activities and are free to alter or edit them. The examples below were developed in partnership with teachers from the AP community to share ways that they approach teaching some of the topics in this unit. Please refer to the Instructional Approaches section beginning on p. 217 for more examples of activities and strategies.

Activity	Topic	Sample Activity
1	3.3	Match Claims and Evidence This time period is rife with opportunities for students to consider the British and colonial perspectives on events and ideas. Ask small groups of students to write claims and supporting evidence statements on two separate notecards based on the prompt: How did British colonial policies regarding North America lead to the Revolutionary War? Have groups trade claims and evidence and revise or modify the claims (if necessary), match the claims and evidence, and write statements explaining why the evidence supports the claim.
2	3.4	Fishbowl Have students discuss the arguments presented in American Revolution-era documents, such as Thomas Paine's Common Sense or the Declaration of Independence, and how colonists responded to British actions and policies leading up to the American Revolution.
3	3.8	Close Reading When students are reading foundational documents, such as the Constitution and the Federalist Papers, have them highlight relevant words and passages that support the author's claim. Ask students to connect ideas outlined in the documents to colonial experiences with British government in the revolutionary period.
4	3.10	Critique Reasoning This topic lends itself to reading primary source documents. Have students identify and critique Washington's main points in his 1796 Farewell Address. Then, ask students to examine Washington's perspective, the historical situation, and the evidence and reasoning he uses to support his position.

Unit Planning Notes

Use the space below to plan your approach to the unit. Consider how you want to pace the unit; which specific historical figures, groups, or events you will use to illustrate the concepts noted in the historical development statements; where you will incorporate writing assignments; and which primary and secondary sources you will use.

TOPIC 3.1

Contextualizing Period 3

Spend a class period helping students understand some contexts for this unit. Considering this unit's key concepts (previewed below), select one or two for which your students will most need context.

To understand context, your students could examine:

- Change from and/or continuity with preceding historical developments.
- Similarities and/or differences with contemporaneous historical developments in different regions or geographical areas.

Whenever possible, draw upon students' relevant prior knowledge, and anchor this contextualization lesson in historical source material of varying formats such as visuals, data, or written texts, or conduct an activity that engages students in exploring context.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 3: Learning Objective A

Explain the context in which America gained independence and developed a sense of national identity.

PREVIEW: UNIT 3 KEY CONCEPTS

KC-3.1

British attempts to assert tighter control over its North American colonies and the colonial resolve to pursue self-government led to a colonial independence movement and the Revolutionary War.

KC-3.1.I

The competition among the British, French, and American Indians for economic and political advantage in North America culminated in the Seven Years' War (the French and Indian War), in which Britain defeated France and allied American Indians.

KC-3.1.II

The desire of many colonists to assert ideals of self-government in the face of renewed British imperial efforts led to a colonial independence movement and war with Britain.

LEARNING OBJECTIVEUnit 3: Learning Objective A

Explain the context in which America gained independence and developed a sense of national identity.

PREVIEW: UNIT 3 KEY CONCEPTSKC-3.2

The American Revolution's democratic and republican ideals inspired new experiments with different forms of government.

KC-3.2.I

The ideals that inspired the revolutionary cause reflected new beliefs about politics, religion, and society that had been developing over the course of the 18th century.

KC-3.2.II

After declaring independence, American political leaders created new constitutions and declarations of rights that articulated the role of the state and federal governments while protecting individual liberties and limiting both centralized power and excessive popular influence.

KC-3.2.III.i

New forms of national culture and political institutions developed in the United States alongside continued regional variations and differences over economic, political, social, and foreign policy issues.

KC-3.3

Migration within North America and competition over resources, boundaries, and trade intensified conflicts among peoples and nations.

KC-3.3.I

In the decades after American independence, interactions among different groups resulted in competition for resources, shifting alliances, and cultural blending.

KC-3.3.II

The continued presence of European powers in North America challenged the United States to find ways to safeguard its borders, maintain neutral trading rights, and promote its economic interests.

THEMATIC FOCUS

America in the World WOR

Diplomatic, economic, cultural, and military interactions between empires, nations, and peoples shape the development of America and America's increasingly important role in the world.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 3: Learning Objective B

Explain the causes and effects of the Seven Years' War (the French and Indian War).

KC-3.1.I.A

Colonial rivalry intensified between Britain and France in the mid-18th century, as the growing population of the British colonies expanded into the interior of North America, threatening French-Indian trade networks and American Indian autonomy.

KC-3.1.I.B

Britain achieved a major expansion of its territorial holdings by defeating the French, but at tremendous expense, setting the stage for imperial efforts to raise revenue and consolidate control over the colonies.

KC-3.1.I.C

After the British victory, imperial officials' attempts to prevent colonists from moving westward generated colonial opposition, while native groups sought to both continue trading with Europeans and resist the encroachments of colonists on tribal lands.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 3: Learning Objective C

Explain how British colonial policies regarding North America led to the Revolutionary War.

KC-3.1.II.A

The imperial struggles of the mid-18th century, as well as new British efforts to collect taxes without direct colonial representation or consent and to assert imperial authority in the colonies, began to unite the colonists against perceived and real constraints on their economic activities and political rights.

KC-3.1.II.B

Colonial leaders based their calls for resistance to Britain on arguments about the rights of British subjects, the rights of the individual, local traditions of self-rule, and the ideas of the Enlightenment.

KC-3.1.II.C

The effort for American independence was energized by colonial leaders such as Benjamin Franklin, as well as by popular movements that included the political activism of laborers, artisans, and women.

KC-3.1.II.D

In the face of economic shortages and the British military occupation of some regions, men and women mobilized in large numbers to provide financial and material support to the Patriot movement.

THEMATIC FOCUS

American and National Identity NAT

The development of and debates about democracy, freedom, citizenship, diversity, and individualism shape American national identity, cultural values, and beliefs about American exceptionalism, and in turn, these ideas shape political institutions and society. Throughout American history, notions of national identity and culture have coexisted with varying degrees of regional and group identities.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 3: Learning Objective D

Explain how and why colonial attitudes about government and the individual changed in the years leading up to the American Revolution.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTS

KC-3.2.1.A

Enlightenment ideas and philosophy inspired many American political thinkers to emphasize individual talent over hereditary privilege, while religion strengthened Americans' view of themselves as a people blessed with liberty.

KC-3.2.1.B

The colonists' belief in the superiority of republican forms of government based on the natural rights of the people found expression in Thomas Paine's Common Sense and the Declaration of Independence. The ideas in these documents resonated throughout American history, shaping Americans' understanding of the ideals on which the nation was based.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTS

KC-3.2.I.C

During and after the American Revolution, an increased awareness of inequalities in society motivated some individuals and groups to call for the abolition of slavery and greater political democracy in the new state and national governments.

KC-3.2.I.D

In response to women's participation in the American Revolution, Enlightenment ideas, and women's appeals for expanded roles, an ideal of “republican motherhood” gained popularity. It called on women to teach republican values within the family and granted women a new importance in American political culture.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTS

KC-3.2.II.A

Many new state constitutions placed power in the hands of the legislative branch and maintained property qualifications for voting and citizenship.

KC-3.2.II.B

The Articles of Confederation unified the newly independent states, creating a central government with limited power. After the Revolution, difficulties over international trade, finances, interstate commerce, foreign relations, and internal unrest led to calls for a stronger central government.

KC-3.3.I.C

As settlers moved westward during the 1780s, Congress enacted the Northwest Ordinance for admitting new states; the ordinance promoted public education, the protection of private property, and a ban on slavery in the Northwest Territory.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTSKC-3.2.II.C.i

Delegates from the states participated in the Constitutional Convention and through negotiation, collaboration, and compromise proposed a constitution.

KC-3.2.II.D

The Constitutional Convention compromised over the representation of slave states in Congress and the role of the federal government in regulating both slavery and the slave trade, allowing the prohibition of the international slave trade after 1808.

KC-3.2.II.E

In the debate over ratifying the Constitution, Anti-Federalists opposing ratification battled with Federalists, whose principles were articulated in the Federalist Papers (primarily written by Alexander Hamilton and James Madison). Federalists ensured the ratification of the Constitution by promising the addition of a Bill of Rights that enumerated individual rights and explicitly restricted the powers of the federal government.

LEARNING OBJECTIVEUnit 3: Learning Objective P

Explain how the American independence movement affected society from 1754 to 1800.

REVIEW: UNIT 3 KEY CONCEPTSKC-3.2

The American Revolution's democratic and republican ideals inspired new experiments with different forms of government.

KC-3.2.I

The ideals that inspired the revolutionary cause reflected new beliefs about politics, religion, and society that had been developing over the course of the 18th century.

KC-3.2.II

After declaring independence, American political leaders created new constitutions and declarations of rights that articulated the role of the state and federal governments while protecting individual liberties and limiting both centralized power and excessive popular influence.

KC-3.2.III.i

New forms of national culture and political institutions developed in the United States alongside continued regional variations and differences over economic, political, social, and foreign policy issues.

KC-3.3

Migration within North America and competition over resources, boundaries, and trade intensified conflicts among peoples and nations.

KC-3.3.I

In the decades after American independence, interactions among different groups resulted in competition for resources, shifting alliances, and cultural blending.

KC-3.3.II

The continued presence of European powers in North America challenged the United States to find ways to safeguard its borders, maintain neutral trading rights, and promote its economic interests.

SAMPLE INSTRUCTIONAL ACTIVITIES

The sample activities on this page are optional and are offered to provide possible ways to incorporate instructional approaches into the classroom. Teachers do not need to use these activities and are free to alter or edit them. The examples below were developed in partnership with teachers from the AP community to share ways that they approach teaching some of the topics in this unit. Please refer to the Instructional Approaches section beginning on p. 217 for more examples of activities and strategies.

Activity	Topic	Sample Activity
1	4.2	Debriefing This topic contains several complex economic, political, and foreign policy issues—such as the tariff, interpretation of the Constitution, and the purchase of foreign land—that teachers can lead students through a debrief on to ensure understanding of these issues, individually and collectively, in relation to the time period.
2	4.5	Self/Peer Revision Students have been practicing writing a historically defensible claim and supporting their argument using specific and relevant evidence. This topic's learning objective—Unit 4: Learning Objective E: Explain the causes and effects of the innovations in technology, agriculture, and commerce over time —can serve as a prompt for students to write thesis statements and outline evidence to be used in support of the claim. Then ask students to select a partner, review the claims and evidence, and provide feedback.
3	4.8	Questioning the Text Assign students to read and analyze Andrew Jackson's first inaugural address and write down any clarification and discussion questions that come to mind while reading the text. Ask students to focus on the main points that Jackson hoped to address in his presidency as outlined in the inaugural address. Form groups around similar questions and ask students to research answers from a source, such as the textbook. Have groups present their findings and lead a discussion about the purpose of inaugural addresses as well as the successes and failures of the Jackson administration.
4	4.9–4.11	Socratic Seminar This activity combines Topics 4.9–4.11. Use the question What were the key ingredients in the creation of an American culture? to initiate a discussion in which students can illustrate their understanding of all the learning objectives and historical developments in these topics.

Unit Planning Notes

Use the space below to plan your approach to the unit. Consider how you want to pace the unit; which specific historical figures, groups, or events you will use to illustrate the concepts noted in the historical development statements; where you will incorporate writing assignments; and which primary and secondary sources you will use.

SUGGESTED SKILL

 Contextualization

4.A

Identify and describe a historical context for a specific historical development or process.

TOPIC 4.1

Contextualizing Period 4

Spend a class period helping students understand some contexts for this unit. Considering this unit’s key concepts (previewed below), select one or two for which your students will most need context.

To understand context, your students could examine:

- Change from and/or continuity with preceding historical developments.
- Similarities and/or differences with contemporaneous historical developments in different regions or geographical areas.

Whenever possible, draw upon students’ relevant prior knowledge, and anchor this contextualization lesson in historical source material of varying formats such as visuals, data, or written texts, or conduct an activity that engages students in exploring context.

Required Course Content

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 4: Learning Objective A

Explain the context in which the republic developed from 1800 to 1848.

PREVIEW: UNIT 4 KEY CONCEPTS

KC-4.1

The United States began to develop a modern democracy and celebrated a new national culture, while Americans sought to define the nation’s democratic ideals and change their society and institutions to match them.

KC-4.1.I

The nation’s transition to a more participatory democracy was achieved by expanding suffrage from a system based on property ownership to one based on voting by all adult white men, and it was accompanied by the growth of political parties.

KC-4.1.II

While Americans embraced a new national culture, various groups developed distinctive cultures of their own.

KC-4.1.III

Increasing numbers of Americans, many inspired by new religious and intellectual movements, worked primarily outside of government institutions to advance their ideals.

LEARNING OBJECTIVEUnit 4: Learning Objective A

Explain the context in which the republic developed from 1800 to 1848.

PREVIEW: UNIT 4 KEY CONCEPTSKC-4.2

Innovations in technology, agriculture, and commerce powerfully accelerated the American economy, precipitating profound changes to U.S. society and to national and regional identities.

KC-4.2.I

New transportation systems and technologies dramatically expanded manufacturing and agricultural production.

KC-4.2.II

The changes caused by the market revolution had significant effects on U.S. society, workers' lives, and gender and family relations.

KC-4.2.III

Economic development shaped settlement and trade patterns, helping to unify the nation while also encouraging the growth of different regions.

KC-4.3

The U.S. interest in increasing foreign trade and expanding its national borders shaped the nation's foreign policy and spurred government and private initiatives.

KC-4.3.I

Struggling to create an independent global presence, the United States sought to claim territory throughout the North American continent and promote foreign trade.

KC-4.3.II

The United States' acquisition of lands in the West gave rise to contests over the extension of slavery into new territories.

SUGGESTED SKILL

Sourcing and Situation

2.A

Identify a source's point of view, purpose, historical situation, and/or audience.

TOPIC 4.2

The Rise of Political Parties and the Era of Jefferson

Required Course Content

THEMATIC FOCUS

Politics and Power PCE

Debates fostered by social and political groups about the role of government in American social, political, and economic life shape government policy, institutions, political parties, and the rights of citizens.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 4: Learning Objective B

Explain the causes and effects of policy debates in the early republic.

KC-4.1.I.A

In the early 1800s, national political parties continued to debate issues such as the tariff, powers of the federal government, and relations with European powers.

KC-4.1.I.B

Supreme Court decisions established the primacy of the judiciary in determining the meaning of the Constitution and asserted that federal laws took precedence over state laws.

KC-4.3.I.A.i

Following the Louisiana Purchase, the U.S. government sought influence and control over North America through a variety of means, including exploration and diplomatic efforts.

TOPIC 4.3

Politics and Regional Interests

SUGGESTED SKILL *Sourcing and Situation2.B

Explain the point of view, purpose, historical situation, and/or audience of a source.

Required Course Content

THEMATIC FOCUSPolitics and Power PCE

Debates fostered by social and political groups about the role of government in American social, political, and economic life shape government policy, institutions, political parties, and the rights of citizens.

LEARNING OBJECTIVEUnit 4: Learning Objective C

Explain how different regional interests affected debates about the role of the federal government in the early republic.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTSKC-4.1.I.D

Regional interests often trumped national concerns as the basis for many political leaders' positions on slavery and economic policy.

KC-4.2.III.D

Plans to further unify the U.S. economy, such as the American System, generated debates over whether such policies would benefit agriculture or industry, potentially favoring different sections of the country.

KC-4.3.II.C

Congressional attempts at political compromise, such as the Missouri Compromise, only temporarily stemmed growing tensions between opponents and defenders of slavery.

SUGGESTED SKILL

 Sourcing and Situation

2.B

Explain the point of view, purpose, historical situation, and/or audience of a source.

TOPIC 4.4

America on the World Stage

THEMATIC FOCUS

America in the World WOR

Diplomatic, economic, cultural, and military interactions between empires, nations, and peoples shape the development of America and America's increasingly important role in the world.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 4: Learning Objective D

Explain how and why American foreign policy developed and expanded over time.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTS

KC-4.3.i

Struggling to create an independent global presence, the United States sought to claim territory throughout the North American continent and promote foreign trade.

KC-4.3.I.A.ii

The U.S. government sought influence and control over the Western Hemisphere through a variety of means, including military actions, American Indian removal, and diplomatic efforts such as the Monroe Doctrine.

 Argumentation

6.B

Support an argument using specific and relevant evidence.

- Describe specific examples of historically relevant evidence.
- Explain how specific examples of historically relevant evidence support an argument.

Required Course Content

THEMATIC FOCUS

Work, Exchange, and Technology WXT

The interplay between markets, private enterprise, labor, technology, and government policy shape the American economy. In turn, economic activity shapes society and government policy and drives technological innovation.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 4: Learning Objective E

Explain the causes and effects of the innovations in technology, agriculture, and commerce over time.

KC-4.2.I.A

Entrepreneurs helped to create a market revolution in production and commerce, in which market relationships between producers and consumers came to prevail as the manufacture of goods became more organized.

KC-4.2.I.B

Innovations including textile machinery, steam engines, interchangeable parts, the telegraph, and agricultural inventions increased the efficiency of production methods.

KC-4.2.I.C

Legislation and judicial systems supported the development of roads, canals, and railroads, which extended and enlarged markets and helped foster regional interdependence. Transportation networks linked the North and Midwest more closely than they linked regions in the South.

KC-4.2.III.B

Increasing Southern cotton production and the related growth of Northern manufacturing, banking, and shipping industries promoted the development of national and international commercial ties.

SUGGESTED SKILL

 Making Connections

5.B

Explain how a historical development or process relates to another historical development or process.

Market Revolution: Society and Culture

Required Course Content

THEMATIC FOCUSSocial Structures soc

Social categories, roles, and practices are created, maintained, challenged, and transformed throughout American history, shaping government policy, economic systems, culture, and the lives of citizens.

LEARNING OBJECTIVEUnit 4: Learning Objective F

Explain how and why innovation in technology, agriculture, and commerce affected various segments of American society over time.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTSKC-4.2.III.A

Large numbers of international migrants moved to industrializing Northern cities, while many Americans moved west of the Appalachians, developing thriving new communities along the Ohio and Mississippi rivers.

KC-4.2.II.B

The growth of manufacturing drove a significant increase in prosperity and standards of living for some; this led to the emergence of a larger middle class and a small but wealthy business elite, but also to a large and growing population of laboring poor.

KC-4.2.II.A

Increasing numbers of Americans, especially women and men working in factories, no longer relied on semi-subsistence agriculture; instead they supported themselves producing goods for distant markets.

KC-4.2.III.C

Gender and family roles changed in response to the market revolution, particularly with the growth of definitions of domestic ideals that emphasized the separation of public and private spheres.

TOPIC 4.7

Expanding Democracy

SUGGESTED SKILL *Developments and Processes1.B

Explain a historical concept, development, or process.

Required Course Content

THEMATIC FOCUSPolitics and Power PCE

Debates fostered by social and political groups about the role of government in American social, political, and economic life shape government policy, institutions, political parties, and the rights of citizens.

LEARNING OBJECTIVEUnit 4: Learning Objective G

Explain the causes and effects of the expansion of participatory democracy from 1800 to 1848.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTSKC-4.1.I

The nation's transition to a more participatory democracy was achieved by expanding suffrage from a system based on property ownership to one based on voting by all adult white men, and it was accompanied by the growth of political parties.

SUGGESTED SKILL

Evidence in Sources3.D

Explain how claims or evidence support, modify, or refute a source's argument.

TOPIC 4.8

Jackson and Federal Power

Required Course Content

THEMATIC FOCUSPolitics and Power PCE

Debates fostered by social and political groups about the role of government in American social, political, and economic life shape government policy, institutions, political parties, and the rights of citizens.

LEARNING OBJECTIVEUnit 4: Learning Objective H

Explain the causes and effects of continuing policy debates about the role of the federal government from 1800 to 1848.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTSKC-4.1.I.C

By the 1820s and 1830s, new political parties arose—the Democrats, led by Andrew Jackson, and the Whigs, led by Henry Clay—that disagreed about the role and powers of the federal government and issues such as the national bank, tariffs, and federally funded internal improvements.

KC-4.3.I.B

Frontier settlers tended to champion expansion efforts, while American Indian resistance led to a sequence of wars and federal efforts to control and relocate American Indian populations.

TOPIC 4.9

The Development of an American Culture

SUGGESTED SKILL

 Contextualization4.B

Explain how a specific historical development or process is situated within a broader historical context.

Required Course Content

THEMATIC FOCUSAmerican and Regional Culture ARC

Creative expression, demographic change, philosophy, religious beliefs, scientific ideas, social mores, and technology shape national, regional, and group cultures in America, and these varying cultures often play a role in shaping government policy and developing economic systems.

LEARNING OBJECTIVEUnit 4: Learning Objective I

Explain how and why a new national culture developed from 1800 to 1848.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTSKC-4.1.II.B

A new national culture emerged that combined American elements, European influences, and regional cultural sensibilities.

KC-4.1.II.C

Liberal social ideas from abroad and Romantic beliefs in human perfectibility influenced literature, art, philosophy, and architecture.

SUGGESTED SKILL

LEARNING OBJECTIVEUnit 4: Learning Objective K

Explain how and why various reform movements developed and expanded from 1800 to 1848.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTSKC-4.1.II.A.ii

The rise of democratic and individualistic beliefs, a response to rationalism, and changes to society caused by the market revolution, along with greater social and geographical mobility, contributed to moral and social reforms and inspired utopian and other religious movements.

KC-4.1.III.A

Americans formed new voluntary organizations that aimed to change individual behaviors and improve society through temperance and other reform efforts.

KC-4.1.III.B.i

Abolitionist and antislavery movements gradually achieved emancipation in the North, contributing to the growth of the free African American population, even as many state governments restricted African Americans' rights.

KC-4.3.II.B.i

Antislavery movements increased in the North.

KC-4.1.III.C

A women's rights movement sought to create greater equality and opportunities for women, expressing its ideals at the Seneca Falls Convention.

THEMATIC FOCUS

Geography and the Environment GEO

Geographic and environmental factors, including competition over and debates about natural resources, shape the development of America and foster regional diversity. The development of America impacts the environment and reshapes geography, which leads to debates about environmental and geographic issues.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 4: Learning Objective M

Explain how geographic and environmental factors shaped the development of the South from 1800 to 1848.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTS

KC-4.3.II.B.ii

In the South, although the majority of Southerners owned no slaves, most leaders argued that slavery was part of the Southern way of life.

KC-4.2.III.C

Southern business leaders continued to rely on the production and export of traditional agricultural staples, contributing to the growth of a distinctive Southern regional identity.

KC-4.3.II.A

As overcultivation depleted arable land in the Southeast, slaveholders began relocating their plantations to more fertile lands west of the Appalachians, where the institution of slavery continued to grow.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 5: Learning Objective A

Explain the context in which sectional conflict emerged from 1844 to 1877.

PREVIEW: UNIT 5 KEY CONCEPTS

KC-5.1

The United States became more connected with the world, pursued an expansionist foreign policy in the Western Hemisphere, and emerged as the destination for many migrants from other countries.

KC-5.1.I

Popular enthusiasm for U.S. expansion, bolstered by economic and security interests, resulted in the acquisition of new territories, substantial migration westward, and new overseas initiatives.

KC-5.1.II

In the 1840s and 1850s, Americans continued to debate questions about rights and citizenship for various groups of U.S. inhabitants.

LEARNING OBJECTIVEUnit 5: Learning Objective A

Explain the context in which sectional conflict emerged from 1844 to 1877.

PREVIEW: UNIT 5 KEY CONCEPTSKC-5.2

Intensified by expansion and deepening regional divisions, debates over slavery and other economic, cultural, and political issues led the nation into civil war.

KC-5.2.I

Ideological and economic differences over slavery produced an array of diverging responses from Americans in the North and the South.

KC-5.2.II

Debates over slavery came to dominate political discussion in the 1850s, culminating in the bitter election of 1860 and the secession of Southern states.

KC-5.3

The Union victory in the Civil War and the contested reconstruction of the South settled the issues of slavery and secession, but left unresolved many questions about the power of the federal government and citizenship rights.

KC-5.3.I

The North's greater manpower and industrial resources, the leadership of Abraham Lincoln and others, and the decision to emancipate slaves eventually led to the Union military victory over the Confederacy in the devastating Civil War.

KC-5.3.II.I

Reconstruction and the Civil War ended slavery, altered relationships between the states and the federal government, and led to debates over new definitions of citizenship, particularly regarding the rights of African Americans, women, and other minorities.

THEMATIC FOCUS

Geography and the Environment GEO

Geographic and environmental factors, including competition over and debates about natural resources, shape the development of America and foster regional diversity. The development of America impacts the environment and reshapes geography, which leads to debates about environmental and geographic issues.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 5: Learning Objective B

Explain the causes and effects of westward expansion from 1844 to 1877.

KC-5.1.I.A

The desire for access to natural and mineral resources and the hope of many settlers for economic opportunities or religious refuge led to an increased migration to and settlement in the West.

KC-5.1.I.B

Advocates of annexing western lands argued that Manifest Destiny and the superiority of American institutions compelled the United States to expand its borders westward to the Pacific Ocean.

KC-5.1.I.D

Westward migration was boosted during and after the Civil War by the passage of new legislation promoting western transportation and economic development.

KC-5.1.I.E

U.S. interest in expanding trade led to economic, diplomatic, and cultural initiatives to create more ties with Asia.

TOPIC 5.3

The Mexican–American War

SUGGESTED SKILL

 *Claims and Evidence in Sources3.C

Required Course Content

THEMATIC FOCUSAmerica in the World WOR*

Diplomatic, economic, cultural, and military interactions between empires, nations, and peoples shape the development of America and America's increasingly important role in the world.

LEARNING OBJECTIVEUnit 5: Learning Objective C

Explain the causes and effects of the Mexican–American War.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTSKC-5.1.I.C

The United States added large territories in the West through victory in the Mexican–American War and diplomatic negotiations, raising questions about the status of slavery, American Indians, and Mexicans in the newly acquired lands.

KC-5.1.II.C

U.S. government interaction and conflict with Mexican Americans and American Indians increased in regions newly taken from American Indians and Mexico, altering these groups' economic self-sufficiency and cultures.

SUGGESTED SKILL

 Contextualization

4.B

Explain how a specific historical development or process is situated within a broader historical context.

TOPIC 5.4

The Compromise of 1850

Required Course Content

THEMATIC FOCUS

American and National Identity NAT

The development of and debates about democracy, freedom, citizenship, diversity, and individualism shape American national identity, cultural values, and beliefs about American exceptionalism, and in turn, these ideas shape political institutions and society. Throughout American history, notions of national identity and culture have coexisted with varying degrees of regional and group identities.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 5: Learning Objective D

Explain the similarities and differences in how regional attitudes affected federal policy in the period after the Mexican–American War.

KC-5.2.II.A

The Mexican Cession led to heated controversies over whether to allow slavery in the newly acquired territories.

KC-5.2.II.B.i

The courts and national leaders made a variety of attempts to resolve the issue of slavery in the territories, including the Compromise of 1850.

TOPIC 5.5

Sectional Conflict: Regional Differences

SUGGESTED SKILL

 *Sourcing and Situation2.B

Explain the point of view, purpose, historical situation, and/or audience of a source.

Required Course Content

THEMATIC FOCUSAmerican and Regional Culture ARC

Creative expression, demographic change, philosophy, religious beliefs, scientific ideas, social mores, and technology shape national, regional, and group cultures in America, and these varying cultures often play a role in shaping government policy and developing economic systems.

LEARNING OBJECTIVEUnit 5: Learning Objective E

Explain the effects of immigration from various parts of the world on American culture from 1844 to 1877.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTSKC-5.1.II.A

Substantial numbers of international migrants continued to arrive in the United States from Europe and Asia, mainly from Ireland and Germany, often settling in ethnic communities where they could preserve elements of their languages and customs.

KC-5.1.II.B

A strongly anti-Catholic nativist movement arose that was aimed at limiting new immigrants' political power and cultural influence.

THEMATIC FOCUSSocial Structures soc

Social categories, roles, and practices are created, maintained, challenged, and transformed throughout American history, shaping government policy, economic systems, culture, and the lives of citizens.

LEARNING OBJECTIVEUnit 5: Learning Objective F

Explain how regional differences related to slavery caused tension in the years leading up to the Civil War.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTSKC-5.2.1.A

The North's expanding manufacturing economy relied on free labor in contrast to the Southern economy's dependence on slave labor. Some Northerners did not object to slavery on principle but claimed that slavery would undermine the free labor market. As a result, a free-soil movement arose that portrayed the expansion of slavery as incompatible with free labor.

KC-5.2.1.B

African American and white abolitionists, although a minority in the North, mounted a highly visible campaign against slavery, presenting moral arguments against the institution, assisting slaves' escapes, and sometimes expressing a willingness to use violence to achieve their goals.

KC-5.2.1.C

Defenders of slavery based their arguments on racial doctrines, the view that slavery was a positive social good, and the belief that slavery and states' rights were protected by the Constitution.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 5: Learning Objective G

Explain the political causes of the Civil War.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTS

KC-5.2.II.B.ii

The courts and national leaders made a variety of attempts to resolve the issue of slavery in the territories, including the Kansas–Nebraska Act, and the Dred Scott decision, but these ultimately failed to reduce conflict.

KC-5.2.II.C

The Second Party System ended when the issues of slavery and anti-immigrant nativism weakened loyalties to the two major parties and fostered the emergence of sectional parties, most notably the Republican Party in the North.

Debates fostered by social and political groups about the role of government in American social, political, and economic life shape government policy, institutions, political parties, and the rights of citizens.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 5: Learning Objective H

Describe the effects of Lincoln's election.

KC-5.2.II.D

Abraham Lincoln's victory on the Republicans' free-soil platform in the presidential election of 1860 was accomplished without any Southern electoral votes. After a series of contested debates about secession, most slave states voted to secede from the Union, precipitating the Civil War.

TOPIC 5.8

Military Conflict in the Civil War

SUGGESTED SKILL

 *Making Connections5.A

Identify patterns among or connections between historical developments and processes.

Required Course Content

THEMATIC FOCUSAmerica in the World WOR

Diplomatic, economic, cultural, and military interactions between empires, nations, and peoples shape the development of America and America's increasingly important role in the world.

LEARNING OBJECTIVEUnit 5: Learning Objective I

Explain the various factors that contributed to the Union victory in the Civil War.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTSKC-5.3.1.A

Both the Union and the Confederacy mobilized their economies and societies to wage the war even while facing considerable home front opposition.

KC-5.3.1.D

Although the Confederacy showed military initiative and daring early in the war, the Union ultimately succeeded due to improvements in leadership and strategy, key victories, greater resources, and the wartime destruction of the South's infrastructure.

The development of and debates about democracy, freedom, citizenship, diversity, and individualism shape American national identity, cultural values, and beliefs about American exceptionalism, and in turn, these ideas shape political institutions and society. Throughout American history, notions of national identity and culture have coexisted with varying degrees of regional and group identities.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 5: Learning Objective J

Explain how Lincoln’s leadership during the Civil War impacted American ideals over the course of the war.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTS

KC-5.3.1.B

Lincoln and most Union supporters began the Civil War to preserve the Union, but Lincoln’s decision to issue the Emancipation Proclamation reframed the purpose of the war and helped prevent the Confederacy from gaining full diplomatic support from European powers. Many African Americans fled southern plantations and enlisted in the Union Army, helping to undermine the Confederacy.

KC-5.3.1.C

Lincoln sought to reunify the country and used speeches such as the Gettysburg Address to portray the struggle against slavery as the fulfillment of America’s founding democratic ideals.

LEARNING OBJECTIVEUnit 5: Learning Objective K

Explain the effects of government policy during Reconstruction on society from 1865 to 1877.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTSKC-5.3.II.ii

Reconstruction altered relationships between the states and the federal government and led to debates over new definitions of citizenship, particularly regarding the rights of African Americans, women, and other minorities.

KC-5.3.II.A

The 13th Amendment abolished slavery, while the 14th and 15th amendments granted African Americans citizenship, equal protection under the laws, and voting rights.

KC-5.3.II.B

The women's rights movement was both emboldened and divided over the 14th and 15th amendments to the Constitution.

KC-5.3.II.C

Efforts by radical and moderate Republicans to change the balance of power between Congress and the presidency and to reorder race relations in the defeated South yielded some short-term successes. Reconstruction opened up political opportunities and other leadership roles to former slaves, but it ultimately failed, due both to determined Southern resistance and the North's waning resolve.

American and National Identity NAT

The development of and debates about democracy, freedom, citizenship, diversity, and individualism shape American national identity, cultural values, and beliefs about American exceptionalism, and in turn, these ideas shape political institutions and society. Throughout American history, notions of national identity and culture have coexisted with varying degrees of regional and group identities.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 5: Learning Objective L

Explain how and why Reconstruction resulted in continuity and change in regional and national understandings of what it meant to be American.

KC-5.3.II.D

Southern plantation owners continued to own the majority of the region’s land even after Reconstruction. Former slaves sought land ownership but generally fell short of self-sufficiency, as an exploitative and soil-intensive sharecropping system limited blacks’ and poor whites’ access to land in the South.

KC-5.3.II.E

Segregation, violence, Supreme Court decisions, and local political tactics progressively stripped away African American rights, but the 14th and 15th amendments eventually became the basis for court decisions upholding civil rights in the 20th century.

REVIEW: UNIT 5 KEY CONCEPTS

KC-5.1

The United States became more connected with the world, pursued an expansionist foreign policy in the Western Hemisphere, and emerged as the destination for many migrants from other countries.

KC-5.1.I

Popular enthusiasm for U.S. expansion, bolstered by economic and security interests, resulted in the acquisition of new territories, substantial migration westward, and new overseas initiatives.

KC-5.1.II

In the 1840s and 1850s, Americans continued to debate questions about rights and citizenship for various groups of U.S. inhabitants.

REVIEW: UNIT 5 KEY CONCEPTSKC-5.2

Intensified by expansion and deepening regional divisions, debates over slavery and other economic, cultural, and political issues led the nation into civil war.

KC-5.2.I

Ideological and economic differences over slavery produced an array of diverging responses from Americans in the North and the South.

KC-5.2.II

Debates over slavery came to dominate political discussion in the 1850s, culminating in the bitter election of 1860 and the secession of Southern states.

KC-5.3

The Union victory in the Civil War and the contested reconstruction of the South settled the issues of slavery and secession, but left unresolved many questions about the power of the federal government and citizenship rights.

SAMPLE INSTRUCTIONAL ACTIVITIES

The sample activities on this page are optional and are offered to provide possible ways to incorporate instructional approaches into the classroom. Teachers do not need to use these activities and are free to alter or edit them. The examples below were developed in partnership with teachers from the AP community to share ways that they approach teaching some of the topics in this unit. Please refer to the Instructional Approaches section beginning on p. 217 for more examples of activities and strategies.

Activity	Topic	Sample Activity
1	6.2, 6.3	Think-Pair-Share Topics 6.2 and 6.3 share the same learning objective, Explain the causes and effects of the settlement of the West from 1877 to 1898 . Give students practice with the reasoning process of causation by having them use think-pair-share to come up with these causes and effects and then grouping them into like categories, such as transportation or technology.
2	6.4	Close Reading Regional identities are a challenging topic for students in this course. Ask students to read excerpts from Henry Grady speeches, such as his address to the Bay State Club of Boston in 1889, and have them highlight relevant words and passages that support the author's claim. Ask students how the address tackles economic and social issues related to the "New South."
3	6.8	Create Representations Ask students to collect information on the "new" immigrants of the late 19th century. They might research numbers of immigrants, countries of origin, demographics, and settlement locations in the U.S. Ask them to create an infographic for one of the "new" immigrant groups from this time period using widely available free internet resources. Have students share their infographics with the whole group and discuss the factors that affected migration patterns over time.
4	6.13	Debriefing This topic contains several complex economic and political issues, such as tariffs and currency and government regulation, that teachers can lead students through a debrief on to ensure understanding of these issues, individually and collectively, in relation to the time period.

Unit Planning Notes

Use the space below to plan your approach to the unit. TOPIC 6.1

Contextualizing Period 6

Spend a class period helping students understand some contexts for this unit. Considering this unit's key concepts (previewed below), select one or two for which your students will most need context.

To understand context, your students could examine:

- Change from and/or continuity with preceding historical developments.
- Similarities and/or differences with contemporaneous historical developments in different regions or geographical areas.

Whenever possible, draw upon students' relevant prior knowledge, and anchor this contextualization lesson in historical source material of varying formats such as visuals, data, or written texts, or conduct an activity that engages students in exploring context.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 6: Learning Objective A

Explain the historical context for the rise of industrial capitalism in the United States.

PREVIEW: UNIT 6 KEY CONCEPTS

KC-6.1

Technological advances, large-scale production methods, and the opening of new markets encouraged the rise of industrial capitalism in the United States.

KC-6.1.I

Large-scale industrial production—accompanied by massive technological change, expanding international communication networks, and pro-growth government policies—generated rapid economic development and business consolidation.

KC-6.1.II

A variety of perspectives on the economy and labor developed during a time of financial panics and downturns.

KC-6.1.III

New systems of production and transportation enabled consolidation within agriculture, which, along with periods of instability, spurred a variety of responses from farmers.

LEARNING OBJECTIVEUnit 6: Learning Objective A

Explain the historical context for the rise of industrial capitalism in the United States.

PREVIEW: UNIT 6 KEY CONCEPTSKC-6.2

The migrations that accompanied industrialization transformed both urban and rural areas of the United States and caused dramatic social and cultural change.

KC-6.2.I

International and internal migration increased urban populations and fostered the growth of a new urban culture.

KC-6.2.II

Larger numbers of migrants moved to the West in search of land and economic opportunity, frequently provoking competition and violent conflict.

KC-6.3

The Gilded Age produced new cultural and intellectual movements, public reform efforts, and political debates over economic and social policies.

KC-6.3.I

New cultural and intellectual movements both buttressed and challenged the social order of the Gilded Age.

KC-6.3.II

Dramatic social changes in the period inspired political debates over citizenship, corruption, and the proper relationship between business and government.

Required Course Content

THEMATIC FOCUSMigration and Settlement MIG

Push and pull factors shape immigration to and migration within America, and the demographic change as a result of these moves shapes the migrants, society, and the environment.

LEARNING OBJECTIVEUnit 6: Learning Objective B

Explain the causes and effects of the settlement of the West from 1877 to 1898.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTSKC-6.1.III.A

Improvements in mechanization helped agricultural production increase substantially and contributed to declines in food prices.

KC-6.1.III.B

Many farmers responded to the increasing consolidation in agricultural markets and their dependence on the evolving railroad system by creating local and regional cooperative organizations.

KC-6.1.I.A

Following the Civil War, government subsidies for transportation and communication systems helped open new markets in North America.

KC-6.2.II.A

The building of transcontinental railroads, the discovery of mineral resources, and government policies promoted economic growth and created new communities and centers of commercial activity.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 6: Learning Objective B

Explain the causes and effects of the settlement of the West from 1877 to 1898.

KC-6.2.II.B

In hopes of achieving ideals of self-sufficiency and independence, migrants moved to both rural and boomtown areas of the West for opportunities, such as building the railroads, mining, farming, and ranching.

KC-6.2.II.C

As migrant populations increased in number and the American bison population was decimated, competition for land and resources in the West among white settlers, American Indians, and Mexican Americans led to an increase in violent conflict.

KC-6.2.II.D

The U.S. government violated treaties with American Indians and responded to resistance with military force, eventually confining American Indians to reservations and denying tribal sovereignty.

KC-6.2.II.E

Many American Indians preserved their cultures and tribal identities despite government policies promoting assimilation, and they attempted to develop self-sustaining economic practices.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 6: Learning Objective C

Explain how various factors contributed to continuity and change in the “New South” from 1877 to 1898.

KC-6.1.II.D

Despite the industrialization of some segments of the Southern economy—a change promoted by Southern leaders who called for a “New South”—agriculture based on sharecropping and tenant farming continued to be the primary economic activity in the South.

KC-6.3.II.C

The Supreme Court decision in Plessy v. Ferguson that upheld racial segregation helped to mark the end of most of the political gains African Americans made during Reconstruction. Facing increased violence, discrimination, and scientific theories of race, African American reformers continued to fight for political and social equality.

Explain the various responses to immigration in the period over time.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTS

KC-6.2.1.C

Increasing public debates over assimilation and Americanization accompanied the growth of international migration. Many immigrants negotiated compromises between the cultures they brought and the culture they found in the United States.

KC-6.3.1.A

Social commentators advocated theories later described as Social Darwinism to justify the success of those at the top of the socioeconomic structure as both appropriate and inevitable.

KC-6.3.11.B.i

Many women, like Jane Addams, worked in settlement houses to help immigrants adapt to U.S. language and customs.

Development of the Middle Class

Required Course Content

THEMATIC FOCUS

Social Structures soc

Social categories, roles, and practices are created, maintained, challenged, and transformed throughout American history, shaping government policy, economic systems, culture, and the lives of citizens.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 6: Learning Objective H

Explain the causes of increased economic opportunity and its effects on society.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTS

KC-6.2.1.E

Corporations' need for managers and for male and female clerical workers, as well as increased access to educational institutions, fostered the growth of a distinctive middle class. A growing amount of leisure time also helped expand consumer culture.

KC-6.3.1.B

Some business leaders argued that the wealthy had a moral obligation to help the less fortunate and improve society, as articulated in the idea known as the Gospel of Wealth, and they made philanthropic contributions that enhanced educational opportunities and urban environments.

Required Course Content

THEMATIC FOCUS

Politics and Power PCE

Debates fostered by social and political groups about the role of government in American social, political, and economic life shape government policy, institutions, political parties, and the rights of citizens.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 6: Learning Objective J

Explain continuities and changes in the role of the government in the U.S. economy.

KC-6.1.II.A

Some argued that laissez-faire policies and competition promoted economic growth in the long run, and they opposed government intervention during economic downturns.

KC-6.1.I.E.ii

Foreign policymakers increasingly looked outside U.S. borders in an effort to gain greater influence and control over markets and natural resources in the Pacific Rim, Asia, and Latin America.

THEMATIC FOCUSPolitics and Power PCE

Debates fostered by social and political groups about the role of government in American social, political, and economic life shape government policy, institutions, political parties, and the rights of citizens.

LEARNING OBJECTIVEUnit 6: Learning Objective K

Explain the similarities and differences between the political parties during the Gilded Age.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTSKC-6.1.III.C

Economic instability inspired agrarian activists to create the People's (Populist) Party, which called for a stronger governmental role in regulating the American economic system.

KC-6.3.II.A

The major political parties appealed to lingering divisions from the Civil War and contended over tariffs and currency issues, even as reformers argued that economic greed and self-interest had corrupted all levels of government.

KC-6.2.I.D

In an urban atmosphere where the access to power was unequally distributed, political machines thrived, in part by providing immigrants and the poor with social services.

SUGGESTED SKILL

 Argumentation

6.D

Corroborate, qualify, or modify an argument using diverse and alternative evidence in order to develop a complex argument. This argument might:

- Explain nuance of an issue by analyzing multiple variables.
- Explain relevant and insightful connections within and across periods.
- Explain the relative historical significance of a source's credibility and limitations.
- Explain how or why a historical claim or argument is or is not effective.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 6: Learning Objective L

Explain the extent to which industrialization brought change from 1865 to 1898.

REVIEW: UNIT 6 KEY CONCEPTS

KC-6.1

Technological advances, large-scale production methods, and the opening of new markets encouraged the rise of industrial capitalism in the United States.

KC-6.1.I

Large-scale industrial production—accompanied by massive technological change, expanding international communication networks, and pro-growth government policies—generated rapid economic development and business consolidation.

KC-6.1.II

A variety of perspectives on the economy and labor developed during a time of financial panics and downturns.

KC-6.1.III

New systems of production and transportation enabled consolidation within agriculture, which, along with periods of instability, spurred a variety of responses from farmers.

LEARNING OBJECTIVEUnit 6: Learning Objective L

Explain the extent to which industrialization brought change from 1865 to 1898.

REVIEW: UNIT 6 KEY CONCEPTSKC-6.2

The migrations that accompanied industrialization transformed both urban and rural areas of the United States and caused dramatic social and cultural change.

KC-6.2.I

International and internal migration increased urban populations and fostered the growth of a new urban culture.

KC-6.2.II

Larger numbers of migrants moved to the West in search of land and economic opportunity, frequently provoking competition and violent conflict.

KC-6.3

The Gilded Age produced new cultural and intellectual movements, public reform efforts, and political debates over economic and social policies.

KC-6.3.I

New cultural and intellectual movements both buttressed and challenged the social order of the Gilded Age.

KC-6.3.II

Dramatic social changes in the period inspired political debates over citizenship, corruption, and the proper relationship between business and government.

SAMPLE INSTRUCTIONAL ACTIVITIES

The sample activities on this page are optional and are offered to provide possible ways to incorporate instructional approaches into the classroom. Teachers do not need to use these activities and are free to alter or edit them. The examples below were developed in partnership with teachers from the AP community to share ways that they approach teaching some of the topics in this unit. Please refer to the Instructional Approaches section beginning on p. 217 for more examples of activities and strategies.

Activity	Topic	Sample Activity
1	7.5, 7.6	Socratic Seminar A Socratic seminar on World War I combines both Topics 7.5 and 7.6. Use the question How was America transformed by conflict? to initiate a discussion in which students can illustrate their understanding of all the learning objectives and historical developments in these topics.
2	7.10	Jigsaw This strategy can be used to facilitate understanding of the various objectives and accomplishments of the New Deal. Have students read and analyze primary and secondary sources related to the relief, recovery, and reform efforts of the New Deal.
3	7.14	Discussion Groups Assign students to groups to discuss the learning objective for this topic, Explain the consequences of U.S. involvement in World War II , with the view to help them gain new understanding by hearing the views of their classmates.

Unit Planning Notes

Use the space below to plan your approach to the unit. Consider how you want to pace the unit; which specific historical figures, groups, or events you will use to illustrate the concepts noted in the historical development statements; where you will incorporate writing assignments; and which primary and secondary sources you will use.

 Contextualization

4.B

Explain how a specific historical development or process is situated within a broader historical context.

TOPIC 7.1

Contextualizing Period 7

Spend a class period helping students understand some contexts for this unit. Considering this unit's key concepts (previewed below), select one or two for which your students will most need context.

To understand context, your students could examine:

- Change from and/or continuity with preceding historical developments.
- Similarities and/or differences with contemporaneous historical developments in different regions or geographical areas.

Whenever possible, draw upon students' relevant prior knowledge, and anchor this contextualization lesson in historical source material of varying formats such as visuals, data, or written texts, or conduct an activity that engages students in exploring context.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 7: Learning Objective A

Explain the context in which America grew into its role as a world power.

PREVIEW: UNIT 7 KEY CONCEPTS

KC-7.1

Growth expanded opportunity, while economic instability led to new efforts to reform U.S. society and its economic system.

KC-7.1.I

The United States continued its transition from a rural, agricultural economy to an urban, industrial economy led by large companies.

KC-7.1.II

In the Progressive Era of the early 20th century, Progressives responded to political corruption, economic instability, and social concerns by calling for greater government action and other political and social measures.

KC-7.1.III

During the 1930s, policymakers responded to the mass unemployment and social upheavals of the Great Depression by transforming the U.S. into a limited welfare state, redefining the goals and ideas of modern American liberalism.

LEARNING OBJECTIVEUnit 7: Learning Objective A

Explain the context in which America grew into its role as a world power.

PREVIEW: UNIT 7 KEY CONCEPTSKC-7.2

Innovations in communications and technology contributed to the growth of mass culture, while significant changes occurred in internal and international migration patterns.

KC-7.2.I

Popular culture grew in influence in U.S. society, even as debates increased over the effects of culture on public values, morals, and American national identity.

KC-7.2.II

Economic pressures, global events, and political developments caused sharp variations in the numbers, sources, and experiences of both international and internal migrants.

KC-7.3

Participation in a series of global conflicts propelled the United States into a position of international power while renewing domestic debates over the nation's proper role in the world.

KC-7.3.I

In the late 19th century and early 20th century, new U.S. territorial ambitions and acquisitions in the Western Hemisphere and the Pacific accompanied heightened public debates over America's role in the world.

KC-7.3.II

World War I and its aftermath intensified ongoing debates about the nation's role in the world and how best to achieve national security and pursue American interests.

KC-7.3.III

U.S. participation in World War II transformed American society, while the victory of the United States and its allies over the Axis powers vaulted the U.S. into a position of global, political, and military leadership.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 7: Learning Objective B

Explain the similarities and differences in attitudes about the nation's proper role in the world.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTS

KC-7.3.1.A

Imperialists cited economic opportunities, racial theories, competition with European empires, and the perception in the 1890s that the western frontier was "closed" to argue that Americans were destined to expand their culture and institutions to peoples around the globe.

KC-7.3.1.B

Anti-imperialists cited principles of self-determination and invoked both racial theories and the U.S. foreign policy tradition of isolationism to argue that the United States should not extend its territory overseas.

THEMATIC FOCUSPolitics and Power PCE

Debates fostered by social and political groups about the role of government in American social, political, and economic life shape government policy, institutions, political parties, and the rights of citizens.

LEARNING OBJECTIVEUnit 7: Learning Objective D

Compare the goals and effects of the Progressive reform movement.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTSKC-7.1.II.A

Some Progressive Era journalists attacked what they saw as political corruption, social injustice, and economic inequality, while reformers, often from the middle and upper classes and including many women, worked to effect social changes in cities and among immigrant populations.

KC-7.1.II.D

The Progressives were divided over many issues. Some Progressives supported Southern segregation, while others ignored its presence. Some Progressives advocated expanding popular participation in government, while others called for greater reliance on professional and technical experts to make government more efficient. Progressives also disagreed about immigration restriction.

KC-7.1.II.B

On the national level, Progressives sought federal legislation that they believed would effectively regulate the economy, expand democracy, and generate moral reform. Progressive amendments to the Constitution dealt with issues such as prohibition and women's suffrage.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 7: Learning Objective G

Explain the causes and effects of international and internal migration patterns over time.

KC-7.2.I.C

Official restrictions on freedom of speech grew during World War I, as increased anxiety about radicalism led to a Red Scare and attacks on labor activism and immigrant culture.

KC-7.2.II.A.i

Immigration from Europe reached its peak in the years before World War I. During World War I, nativist campaigns against some ethnic groups led to the passage of quotas that restricted immigration, particularly from southern and eastern Europe, and increased barriers to Asian immigration.

KC-7.2.II.B.i

The increased demand for war production and labor during World War I led many Americans to migrate to urban centers in search of economic opportunities.

KC-7.2.II.C

In the Great Migration during and after World War I, African Americans escaping segregation, racial violence, and limited economic opportunity in the South moved to the North and West, where they found new opportunities but still encountered discrimination.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 7: Learning Objective K

Explain how the Great Depression and the New Deal impacted American political, social, and economic life over time.

KC-7.1.III.A

Franklin Roosevelt’s New Deal attempted to end the Great Depression by using government power to provide relief to the poor, stimulate recovery, and reform the American economy.

KC-7.1.III.B

Radical, union, and populist movements pushed Roosevelt toward more extensive efforts to change the American economic system, while conservatives in Congress and the Supreme Court sought to limit the New Deal’s scope.

KC-7.1.III.C

Although the New Deal did not end the Depression, it left a legacy of reforms and regulatory agencies and fostered a long-term political realignment in which many ethnic groups, African Americans, and working-class communities identified with the Democratic Party.

KC-7.2.II.B.ii

The increased demand for war production and labor during World War II and the economic difficulties of the 1930s led many Americans to migrate to urban centers in search of economic opportunities.

THEMATIC FOCUSSocial Structures soc

Social categories, roles, and practices are created, maintained, challenged, and transformed throughout American history, shaping government policy, economic systems, culture, and the lives of citizens.

LEARNING OBJECTIVEUnit 7: Learning Objective L

Explain how and why U.S. participation in World War II transformed American society.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTSKC-7.3.III.B

The mass mobilization of American society helped end the Great Depression, and the country's strong industrial base played a pivotal role in winning the war by equipping and provisioning allies and millions of U.S. troops.

KC-7.3.III.C.i

Mobilization provided opportunities for women and minorities to improve their socioeconomic positions for the war's duration, while also leading to debates over racial segregation. Wartime experiences also generated challenges to civil liberties, such as the internment of Japanese Americans.

KC-7.2.II.D

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTSKC-7.3.III.A

Americans viewed the war as a fight for the survival of freedom and democracy against fascist and militarist ideologies. This perspective was later reinforced by revelations about Japanese wartime atrocities, Nazi concentration camps, and the Holocaust.

KC-7.3.III.C.ii

Military service provided opportunities for women and minorities to improve their socioeconomic positions for the war's duration, while also leading to debates over racial segregation.

KC-7.3.III.D

The United States and its allies achieved military victory through Allied cooperation, technological and scientific advances, the contributions of servicemen and women, and campaigns such as Pacific "island-hopping" and the D-Day invasion. The use of atomic bombs hastened the end of the war and sparked debates about the morality of using atomic weapons.

KC-7.3.III.E

The war-ravaged condition of Asia and Europe, and the dominant U.S. role in the Allied victory and postwar peace settlements, allowed the United States to emerge from the war as the most powerful nation on Earth.

TOPIC 7.15

Comparison in Period 7

The final topic in this unit focuses on the skill of argumentation and so provides an opportunity for your students to draw upon the key concepts and historical developments they have studied in this unit. Using evidence relevant to this unit's key concepts, students should practice the suggested skill for this topic.

Required Course Content

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 7: Learning Objective O

Compare the relative significance of the major events of the first half of the 20th century in shaping American identity.

REVIEW: UNIT 7 KEY CONCEPTS

KC-7.1

Growth expanded opportunity, while economic instability led to new efforts to reform U.S. society and its economic system.

KC-7.1.I

The United States continued its transition from a rural, agricultural economy to an urban, industrial economy led by large companies.

KC-7.1.II

In the Progressive Era of the early 20th century, Progressives responded to political corruption, economic instability, and social concerns by calling for greater government action and other political and social measures.

KC-7.1.III

During the 1930s, policymakers responded to the mass unemployment and social upheavals of the Great Depression by transforming the U.S. into a limited welfare state, redefining the goals and ideas of modern American liberalism.

SUGGESTED SKILL

 Argumentation

6.D

Corroborate, qualify, or modify an argument using diverse and alternative evidence in order to develop a complex argument. This argument might:

- Explain nuance of an issue by analyzing multiple variables.
- Explain relevant and insightful connections within and across periods.
- Explain the relative historical significance of a source's credibility and limitations.
- Explain how or why a historical claim or argument is or is not effective.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 7: Learning Objective O

Compare the relative significance of the major events of the first half of the 20th century in shaping American identity.

REVIEW: UNIT 7 KEY CONCEPTS

KC-7.2

Innovations in communications and technology contributed to the growth of mass culture, while significant changes occurred in internal and international migration patterns.

KC-7.2.I

Popular culture grew in influence in U.S. society, even as debates increased over the effects of culture on public values, morals, and American national identity.

KC-7.2.II

Economic pressures, global events, and political developments caused sharp variations in the numbers, sources, and experiences of both international and internal migrants.

KC-7.3

Participation in a series of global conflicts propelled the United States into a position of international power while renewing domestic debates over the nation's proper role in the world.

KC-7.3.I

In the late 19th century and early 20th century, new U.S. territorial ambitions and acquisitions in the Western Hemisphere and the Pacific accompanied heightened public debates over America's role in the world.

KC-7.3.II

World War I and its aftermath intensified ongoing debates about the nation's role in the world and how best to achieve national security and pursue American interests.

KC-7.3.III

U.S. participation in World War II transformed American society, while the victory of the United States and its allies over the Axis powers vaulted the U.S. into a position of global, political, and military leadership.

SAMPLE INSTRUCTIONAL ACTIVITIES

The sample activities on this page are optional and are offered to provide possible ways to incorporate instructional approaches into the classroom. Teachers do not need to use these activities and are free to alter or edit them. The examples below were developed in partnership with teachers from the AP community to share ways that they approach teaching some of the topics in this unit. Please refer to the Instructional Approaches section beginning on p. 217 for more examples of activities and strategies.

Activity	Topic	Sample Activity
1	8.2	Close Reading This topic, at the onset of Unit 8, offers a plethora of primary source documents that introduce the student to the context of the Cold War in the post-WWII world. Ask students to read excerpts from Winston Churchill's "Iron Curtain" speech, George Kennan's "Long Telegram," or George Marshall's Harvard commencement speech and have them highlight relevant words and passages that support the author's claim. As a whole group, discuss the changing role of the United States in the world.
2	8.4	Look for a Pattern This topic is rich with visual data that students can describe, analyze, and interpret. Ask students to examine complex graphs that address multiple data sets, such as demographic changes (baby boom), private sector growth, federal spending in different areas, technological developments, and economic indicators. Have them identify patterns and trends and come to conclusions about causes of economic growth after World War II.
3	8.8	Guided Discussion This topic offers a lot of fodder for discussion and debate in the classroom. Brainstorming and quickwrite can be used as strategies during a guided discussion to help students understand the causes and effects of the Vietnam War. What debates were settled? What debates remained or emerged as a result of the Vietnam War?
4	8.10	Shared Inquiry Provide students with a selection of primary sources from individuals and groups involved in the civil rights movement. Divide students into groups and ask them to respond to Unit 8: Learning Objectives L and M and present their ideas to the class. Then lead a whole-group discussion comparing the responses of various groups and the actions and responses by the federal government.

Unit Planning Notes

Use the space below to plan your approach to the unit. Consider how you want to pace the unit; which specific historical figures, groups, or events you will use to illustrate the concepts noted in the historical development statements; where you will incorporate writing assignments; and which primary and secondary sources you will use.

TOPIC 8.1

Contextualizing Period 8

Spend a class period helping students understand some contexts for this unit. Considering this unit's key concepts (previewed below), select one or two for which your students will most need context.

To understand context, your students could examine:

- Change from and/or continuity with preceding historical developments.
- Similarities and/or differences with contemporaneous historical developments in different regions or geographical areas.

Whenever possible, draw upon students' relevant prior knowledge, and anchor this contextualization lesson in historical source material of varying formats such as visuals, data, or written texts, or conduct an activity that engages students in exploring context.

Required Course Content

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 8: Learning Objective A

Explain the context for societal change from 1945 to 1980.

PREVIEW: UNIT 8 KEY CONCEPTS

KC-8.1

The United States responded to an uncertain and unstable postwar world by asserting and working to maintain a position of global leadership, with far-reaching domestic and international consequences.

KC-8.1.I

United States policymakers engaged in a cold war with the authoritarian Soviet Union, seeking to limit the growth of Communist military power and ideological influence, create a free-market global economy, and build an international security system.

KC-8.1.II

Cold War policies led to public debates over the power of the federal government and acceptable means for pursuing international and domestic goals while protecting civil liberties.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 8: Learning Objective A

Explain the context for societal change from 1945 to 1980.

PREVIEW: UNIT 8 KEY CONCEPTS

KC-8.2

New movements for civil rights and liberal efforts to expand the role of government generated a range of political and cultural responses.

KC-8.2.I

Seeking to fulfill Reconstruction-era promises, civil rights activists and political leaders achieved some legal and political successes in ending segregation, although progress toward racial equality was slow.

KC-8.2.II

Responding to social conditions and the African American civil rights movement, a variety of movements emerged that focused on issues of identity, social justice, and the environment.

KC-8.2.III

Liberalism influenced postwar politics and court decisions, but it came under increasing attack from the left as well as from a resurgent conservative movement.

KC-8.3

Postwar economic and demographic changes had far-reaching consequences for American society, politics, and culture.

KC-8.3.I

Rapid economic and social changes in American society fostered a sense of optimism in the postwar years.

KC-8.3.II

New demographic and social developments, along with anxieties over the Cold War, changed U.S. culture and led to significant political and moral debates that sharply divided the nation.

TOPIC 8.2

The Cold War from 1945 to 1980

Required Course Content

THEMATIC FOCUS

America in the World WOR

Diplomatic, economic, cultural, and military interactions between empires, nations, and peoples shape the development of America and America's increasingly important role in the world.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 8: Learning Objective B

Explain the continuities and changes in Cold War policies from 1945 to 1980.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTS

KC-8.1.I

United States policymakers engaged in a cold war with the authoritarian Soviet Union, seeking to limit the growth of Communist military power and ideological influence, create a free-market global economy, and build an international security system.

KC-8.1.I.A

As postwar tensions dissolved the wartime alliance between Western democracies and the Soviet Union, the United States developed a foreign policy based on collective security, international aid, and economic institutions that bolstered non-Communist nations.

KC-8.1.I.B.i

Concerned by expansionist Communist ideology and Soviet repression, the United States sought to contain communism through a variety of measures, including major military engagements in Korea.

KC-8.1.I.C

The Cold War fluctuated between periods of direct and indirect military confrontation and periods of mutual coexistence (or détente).

TOPIC 8.3

The Red Scare

SUGGESTED SKILL *Sourcing and Situation2.B

Explain the point of view, purpose, historical situation, and/or audience of a source.

Required Course Content

THEMATIC FOCUSAmerican and National Identity NAT

The development of and debates about democracy, freedom, citizenship, diversity, and individualism shape American national identity, cultural values, and beliefs about American exceptionalism, and in turn, these ideas shape political institutions and society. Throughout American history, notions of national identity and culture have coexisted with varying degrees of regional and group identities.

LEARNING OBJECTIVEUnit 8: Learning Objective C:

Explain the causes and effects of the Red Scare after World War II.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTSKC-8.1.II.A

Americans debated policies and methods designed to expose suspected communists within the United States even as both parties supported the broader strategy of containing communism.

SUGGESTED SKILL

TOPIC 8.4

Economy

After 1945

Required Course Content

THEMATIC FOCUS

Work, Exchange, and Technology WXT

The interplay between markets, private enterprise, labor, technology, and government policy shape the American economy. In turn, economic activity shapes society and government policy and drives technological innovation.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 8: Learning Objective D

Explain the causes of economic growth in the years after World War II.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTS

KC-8.3.I.A

A burgeoning private sector, federal spending, the baby boom, and technological developments helped spur economic growth.

THEMATIC FOCUS

Migration and Settlement MIG

Push and pull factors shape immigration to and migration within America, and the demographic change as a result of these moves shapes the migrants, society, and the environment.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 8: Learning Objective E

Explain the causes and effects of the migration of various groups of Americans after 1945.

KC-8.3.I.B

As higher education opportunities and new technologies rapidly expanded, increasing social mobility encouraged the migration of the middle class to the suburbs and of many Americans to the South and West. The Sun Belt region emerged as a significant political and economic force.

TOPIC 8.5

Culture after 1945

SUGGESTED SKILL Contextualization4.B

Explain how a specific historical development or process is situated within a broader historical context.

Required Course Content

THEMATIC FOCUSAmerican and Regional Culture ARC

Creative expression, demographic change, philosophy, religious beliefs, scientific ideas, social mores, and technology shape national, regional, and group cultures in America, and these varying cultures often play a role in shaping government policy and developing economic systems.

LEARNING OBJECTIVEUnit 8: Learning Objective F

Explain how mass culture has been maintained or challenged over time.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTSKC-8.3.II.A

Mass culture became increasingly homogeneous in the postwar years, inspiring challenges to conformity by artists, intellectuals, and rebellious youth.

SAMPLE INSTRUCTIONAL ACTIVITIES

The sample activities on this page are optional and are offered to provide possible ways to incorporate instructional approaches into the classroom. Teachers do not need to use these activities and are free to alter or edit them. The examples below were developed in partnership with teachers from the AP community to share ways that they approach teaching some of the topics in this unit. Please refer to the Instructional Approaches section beginning on p. 217 for more examples of activities and strategies.

Activity	Topic	Sample Activity
1	9.2	Debate This topic in the culminating unit offers students an opportunity to debate and discuss thematic focus PCE, which focuses on the role of the federal government over time. Encourage students to prepare by looking at different time periods and turning points in U.S. history when the role of the federal government changed. Teachers can debrief with students about the extent to which this role changed or continued under Ronald Reagan's presidency.
2	9.3	Match Claims and Evidence Now that students are near the end of the course and have had many opportunities to practice argumentation, this activity can be used as early preparation for the AP Exam. Ask small groups of students to write claims and supporting evidence statements on individual note cards based on the causes and effects of the end of the Cold War and the Cold War's legacy. Have groups trade claims and evidence and revise or modify the claims (if necessary), match the claims and evidence, and write statements explaining why the evidence supports the claim.
3	9.5	Making Connections Write concepts related to the course theme of Migration and Settlement (MIG) and related concepts on index cards, place them in a box, and have students pick a card at random. Incorporate concepts from Topic 9.5 as well as from previous topics that addressed immigration and migration. Give students a few minutes to gather and recall information about the theme or concept and then pair students and ask them to find the connection between the theme or concepts. Finally, ask the pairs to write a brief explanation of how the concepts are related.

Unit Planning Notes

Use the space below to plan your approach to the unit. Consider how you want to pace the unit; which specific historical figures, groups, or events you will use to illustrate the concepts noted in the historical development statements; where you will incorporate writing assignments; and which primary and secondary sources you will use.

SUGGESTED SKILL

 Contextualization

4.B

Explain how a specific historical development or process is situated within a broader historical context.

TOPIC 9.1

Contextualizing Period 9

Spend a class period helping students understand some contexts for this unit. Considering this unit's key concepts (previewed below), select one or two for which your students will most need context.

To understand context, your students could examine:

- Change from and/or continuity with preceding historical developments.
- Similarities and/or differences with contemporaneous historical developments in different regions or geographical areas.

Whenever possible, draw upon students' relevant prior knowledge, and anchor this contextualization lesson in historical source material of varying formats such as visuals, data, or written texts, or conduct an activity that engages students in exploring context.

Required Course Content

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 9: Learning Objective A

Explain the context in which the United States faced international and domestic challenges after 1980.

PREVIEW: UNIT 9 KEY CONCEPTS

KC-9.1

A newly ascendant conservative movement achieved several political and policy goals during the 1980s and continued to strongly influence public discourse in the following decades.

KC-9.1.I

Conservative beliefs regarding the need for traditional social values and a reduced role for government advanced in U.S. politics after 1980.

KC-9.2

Moving into the 21st century, the nation experienced significant technological, economic, and demographic changes.

KC-9.2.I

New developments in science and technology enhanced the economy and transformed society, while manufacturing decreased.

KC-9.2.II

The U.S. population continued to undergo demographic shifts that had significant cultural and political consequences.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 9: Learning Objective A

Explain the context in which the United States faced international and domestic challenges after 1980.

PREVIEW: UNIT 9 KEY CONCEPTS

KC-9.3

The end of the Cold War and new challenges to U.S. leadership forced the nation to redefine its foreign policy and role in the world.

KC-9.3.I

The Reagan administration promoted an interventionist foreign policy that continued in later administrations, even after the end of the Cold War.

KC-9.3.II

Following the attacks of September 11, 2001, U.S. foreign policy efforts focused on fighting terrorism around the world.

SUGGESTED SKILL

 Claims and Evidence in Sources

3.C

Compare the arguments or main ideas of two sources.

TOPIC 9.2

Reagan and Conservatism

Required Course Content

THEMATIC FOCUS

Politics and Power PCE

Debates fostered by social and political groups about the role of government in American social, political, and economic life shape government policy, institutions, political parties, and the rights of citizens.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 9: Learning Objective B

Explain the causes and effects of continuing policy debates about the role of the federal government over time.

KC-9.1.I.A

Ronald Reagan’s victory in the presidential election of 1980 represented an important milestone, allowing conservatives to enact significant tax cuts and continue the deregulation of many industries.

KC-9.1.I.B

Conservatives argued that liberal programs were counterproductive in fighting poverty and stimulating economic growth. Some of their efforts to reduce the size and scope of government met with inertia and liberal opposition, as many programs remained popular with voters.

KC-9.1.I.C

Policy debates continued over free-trade agreements, the scope of the government social safety net, and calls to reform the U.S. financial system.

KC-9.1.I

Conservative beliefs regarding the need for traditional social values and a reduced role for government advanced in U.S. politics after 1980.

KC-9.2.II.C

Intense political and cultural debates continued over issues such as immigration policy, diversity, gender roles, and family structures.

TOPIC 9.3

The End of the Cold War

SUGGESTED SKILL

 Developments and Processes

1.B

Explain a historical concept, development, or process.

Required Course Content

THEMATIC FOCUS

America in the World WOR

Diplomatic, economic, cultural, and military interactions between empires, nations, and peoples shape the development of America and America's increasingly important role in the world.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 9: Learning Objective C

Explain the causes and effects of the end of the Cold War and its legacy.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTS

KC-9.3.1.A

Reagan asserted U.S. opposition to communism through speeches, diplomatic efforts, limited military interventions, and a buildup of nuclear and conventional weapons.

KC-9.3.1.B

Increased U.S. military spending, Reagan's diplomatic initiatives, and political changes and economic problems in Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union were all important in ending the Cold War.

KC-9.3.1.C

The end of the Cold War led to new diplomatic relationships but also new U.S. military and peacekeeping interventions, as well as continued debates over the appropriate use of American power in the world.

SUGGESTED SKILL

 *Developments
and Processes1.BExplain a historical concept, development, or process.

TOPIC 9.4

A Changing Economy

Required Course Content

THEMATIC FOCUS

Work, Exchange, and Technology WXT

The interplay between markets, private enterprise, labor, technology, and government policy shape the American economy. In turn, economic activity shapes society and government policy and drives technological innovation.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 9: Learning Objective D

Explain the causes and effects of economic and technological change over time.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTS

KC-9.2.1.A

Economic productivity increased as improvements in digital communications enabled increased American participation in worldwide economic opportunities.

KC-9.2.1.B

Technological innovations in computing, digital mobile technology, and the internet transformed daily life, increased access to information, and led to new social behaviors and networks.

KC-9.2.1.C

Employment increased in service sectors and decreased in manufacturing, and union membership declined.

KC-9.2.1.D

Real wages stagnated for the working and middle class amid growing economic inequality.

TOPIC 9.5

Migration and Immigration in the 1990s and 2000s

Required Course Content

THEMATIC FOCUS

Migration and Settlement MIG

Push and pull factors shape immigration to and migration within America, and the demographic change as a result of these moves shapes the migrants, society, and the environment.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

Unit 9: Learning Objective E

Explain the causes and effects of domestic and international migration over time.

KC-9.2.II.A

After 1980, the political, economic, and cultural influence of the American South and West continued to increase as population shifted to those areas.

KC-9.2.II.B

International migration from Latin America and Asia increased dramatically. The new immigrants affected U.S. culture in many ways and supplied the economy with an important labor force.

SUGGESTED SKILL

 Sourcing and Situation

2.C

Explain the significance of a source's point of view, purpose, historical situation, and/or audience, including how these might limit the use(s) of a source.

TOPIC 9.6

Challenges of the 21st Century

Required Course Content

THEMATIC FOCUSAmerica in the World WOR

Diplomatic, economic, cultural, and military interactions between empires, nations, and peoples shape the development of America and America's increasingly important role in the world.

LEARNING OBJECTIVEUnit 9: Learning Objective F

Explain the causes and effects of the domestic and international challenges the United States has faced in the 21st century.

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTSKC-9.3.II.A

In the wake of attacks on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon in 2001, the United States launched military efforts against terrorism and lengthy, controversial conflicts in Afghanistan and Iraq.

KC-9.3.II.B

The war on terrorism sought to improve security within the United States but also raised questions about the protection of civil liberties and human rights.

KC-9.3.II.C

Conflicts in the Middle East and concerns about climate change led to debates over U.S. dependence on fossil fuels and the impact of economic consumption on the environment.

KC-9.3.II.D

Despite economic and foreign policy challenges, the United States continued as the world's leading superpower in the 21st century.

TOPIC 9.7

Causation in Period 9

The final topic in this unit focuses on the skill of argumentation and so provides an opportunity for your students to draw upon the key concepts and historical developments they have studied in this unit. Using evidence relevant to this unit's key concepts, students should practice the suggested skill for this topic.

Required Course Content

DELAWARE VALLEY SCHOOL DISTRICT

Overview: To culminate the year, students will explore American history from a personal perspective through research, discussions, and presentations. Students will apply historical thinking skills, thematic objectives, and information from the content areas that were the focus of this course in several activities that share their interests and knowledge of American history.

Goals:

- Students will identify and distinguish the qualities and achievements of the American presidents.
- Students analyze and demonstrate an understanding of the significance and impact of specific dates and events in American history.
- Students will examine and analyze different examples of how American political, economic, and social history is depicted through various forms of popular culture.

Objectives:

- Students will develop logical arguments in the ranking of the top ten U.S. Presidents. (DOK – 3)
- Students will research, construct and prepare a presentation discussing the significance and impact of specific dates and events in American history. (DOK – 3)
- Students will analyze selected pieces of popular culture and develop and prepare a written analysis of the selected piece or construct and prepare a presentation (DOK -4)

Core Activities and Corresponding Instructional Methods:

- In groups, students will determine what qualities are necessary to be considered a top-ranking U.S. President and discuss results with classmates in an effort to develop a top ten list for the entire class.
- Days that Changed America Presentations- Students will create a brief presentation (4-6 minutes) that will include a brief overview of the day and event selected including an explanation of how the event changed America. Students may choose any date or event as long as they can explain that the event had a significant impact on some aspect of American life. Topics may include political, economic, social, or cultural events.
- American History and Popular Culture projects-Student projects will involve an examination of a selected political, economic, or social issue of American life and analysis of how the issue has been depicted through some form of popular culture. Options include:

- American Life and Popular Music-Students will be given the task of finding an appropriate song that brings attention to some aspect of political, economic or social life in America. Students will construct a brief presentation that includes an appropriate image of the artist/songwriter, song title, lyrics, and a visual summary of the issues that are discussed in the song. Students will construct a written analysis of the song that demonstrates an understanding of the lyrics and the topics discussed.
- “More than a Game”-Students will choose a specific sporting event and create a news article that will provide a summary of the sporting event and analysis of why the event was “More Than a Game.” News articles must provide multiple paragraphs of accurate detail including an explanation of the political, economic, social, or cultural setting and an explanation of the significance of the event as it relates to the identified setting.
- Movie Review-Students will be given the task to construct a movie review that offers a summary of an appropriate film that discusses a selected political, economic, or social topic. Students must select a film in which the political, economic, or social climate is a central theme of the film, and clearly explain multiple historical references that are made in the film.

Assessments

Diagnostic:

- Timeline, class discussions, brainstorm

Formative:

- Student presentations, class discussions.

Summative:

- Displays, presentations

Extensions:

- Choose a historic event and create a news article that provides a summary and analysis of the impact of the event on American life. Examples include political assassinations, political scandal, political and economic crisis, tragedies

Create a presentation or news article providing a summary of a specific cultural development from modern American history (1945- present).

Examples include: the rise of the suburbs, the impact of television, Rock and Roll, Beat Generation (1950s), Hippies(1960s), Punk (1970s) Hip-Hop (1970s-Present),Grunge (1990s)

Correctives:

- Create a Presidential Profile collage summarizing the achievements of one of the top ten U.S. presidents selected by the class.
- Prepare a biography of a significant person associated with students selected Days the Changed America .
