Delaware Valley Profile

School:	Delaware Valley High School houses grades 9, 10, 11 and 12 with an enrollment of approximately 1,550 students. College-bound students may choose from a cross-section of rigorous academic programs. Business students, in addition to taking required courses, are exposed to a computerized data center. Senior students who have met certain academic criteria may take advantage of the high school's work-study program. This program gives students actual on-the-job training in areas they may pursue after completing the high school diploma requirements. Delaware Valley High School has its own Career Technical Education department, which provides training in eight career areas: Automotive Mechanics; Building Construction Occupations; Culinary Arts, Diversified Occupations, Early Childhood Education; Electrical Occupations; Healthcare Careers, and Marketing and Business. Students elect to participate in the career-technical program three periods a day and attend the academic programs for the remainder of the day. Approximately 74% of the Class of 2018 is attending institutions of higher learning.
Accreditation:	Delaware Valley High School is fully accredited by the Middle Atlantic States Association. In the 2018 rankings, Delaware Valley High School was recognized as one of America's Best High Schools by U.S. News and World Report. The High School was ranked 49th out of 677 high schools in Pennsylvania and was ranked 1473rd out of 28,813 high schools reviewed in the country.
