TITLE: ELIGIBILITY FOR CO-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

ADOPTED: MAY 12, 2011

REVISED: APRIL 14, 2011

1. Authority 2. Guidelines Pol. 227.1	122.1. ELIGIBILITY FOR CO-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES The Board shall establish eligibility requirements for students involved in noncredit co-curricular activities. Eligibility Standards To be eligible for noncredit co-curricular activities, a student must pursue a curriculum approved by the principal and comply with Board policy on drug and alcohol testing. This curriculum must conform to the standards of the Pennsylvania Department of Education. The principal shall establish a monitoring system where all students failing subjects within the approved curriculum are reported to the principal weekly by district staff. Student eligibility to participate in events, such as games, productions, competitions, club meetings and similar activities shall be based on the following: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. No failures. If a student has a failing grade, mandatory tutoring and supervised study will be required unless the student has reversed the failing grade to passing by the end of the week. The student's progress will be monitored weekly. The student will be eligible to participate in events if the mandatory tutoring requirement is fulfilled and a passing grade is achieved. 2. Co-curricular advisors will be responsible for carefully monitoring all members of their organizations. Each advisor must see the assistant principal to determine a mandatory tutorial program for each student on probation. This program will entail thirty (30) minutes of supervised study when the advisor has practices and home games and/or thirty (30) minutes of supervised peer tutoring. This tutorial program will be made available to all students in the school. 3. Incomplete grades will be considered failing until such time as the grade is completed. Eligibility will be reinstated if the student completes assignments satisfactorily. Incompletes will be indicated on the ineligibility list. 4. The eligibility of a student can also be revoked by the principal if the student

All students failing one (1) or more subjects at the end of the school year become ineligible for participation in any fall activities. A student who attends summer school and passes a previously failed subject may be eligible for fall activities on the same basis as students who have no failures.6. New students enrolled in the Delaware Valley School District must comply with these eligibility requirements. The new students' records from the schools previously attended will be reviewed to determine that they are in compliance.
