Joshua the Goat

By: Emma Hill

A goat named Joshua ran almost a 13.1-mile marathon. Joshua is a 10-year-old goat with brown and white hair. On September 29, 2024 in the Canadian Town of Conception Bay South a goat named Joshua joined a 13.1-mile marathon.

The owners say he broke through his collar and ran around the halfway point. They soon realized how popular Joshua was becoming, so they let him finish the race. They put Joshua in the back of their truck and took him about 800 feet from the finish line. When they walked across the line everyone wanted to snap a picture with him. He was the star of the event!
