

DELAWARE VALLEY ELEMENTARY SCHOOL – MRS. MARY ANN OLSOMMER

- DVES celebrated Seuss on the Loose during the first week of March. During the week, students ate green eggs and ham, dressed like their favorite Seuss character, participated in a guessing contest, wore crazy socks, a favorite hat, and their pajamas. Many of the classrooms also read Dr. Seuss books.
- The DVES Orchestra held its spring concert under the direction of Mr. Nathan Kroptavich on March 8. Third, fourth, and fifth grade participants performed in an assembly for the student body during the day and for family and friends during the evening.
- Students and staff celebrated National Pi Day on March 14 by raising funds for Special Olympics with a Pie in the Face Assembly. Twenty staff members were “pied” by the students, and the students learned fun facts about Pi. DVES donated four hundred and forty-five dollars to Special Olympics.
- On March 15, DVES was a busy place. The third grade concert, art show, and book fair hosted by the PTA was held. Under the direction of Mrs. Sarah Maurer, third graders performed some of the songs they have been learning in music class. Students sang and played the drums. The halls of DVES were decorated with student art work, displayed by art teacher Mrs. Danielle Zito, and visitors had the opportunity to participate in spin art and other art activities during the art show.
- Mrs. Ross’ first grade class dyed eggs with Mrs. Knash’s high school life skills class on March 18. Each high school student prepared an egg dying station and worked with a group of 3 or 4 first graders. During their group time, the high school students showed the first graders how to dye and design their special eggs. All of the students had so much fun that Mrs. Ross is hoping this becomes an annual tradition for her class!
