

Danielle Azzollini, a senior at Delaware Valley High School, is an active member of the school community. She is a member of National Honor Society, and Future Business Leaders of America. Azzollini also participates in track and field. “Being involved has helped me grow and develop as a well-rounded person,” she said. “It has also helped me with my ability to take on multiple challenges at once.” She also volunteers for Habitat for Humanity and the United Way’s Day of Caring. “Volunteering has allowed me to see how it is very important to help others,” she said. “I would love to continue volunteering.” Azzollini will be attending Widener University in the fall.

The outstanding tennis seasons of Andrew Neidig and Dan Kurtzman ended Friday, May 24 with a loss in the 1st round of the state championships. Neidig went 18-2 at the No. 1 singles spot this year and was the district singles finalist and doubles champion. Kurtzman went undefeated at the No. 3 singles spot and teamed with Neidig to win the district doubles championship for Delaware Valley High School.

Pictured: from left to right - Dan Kurtzman, head coach Larry Hudson, and Andrew Neidig