

Morganne Mallon, a senior at Delaware Valley High School, thrives on being involved and making a difference. Mallon is an AP scholar with honors and a bright student who received a National Merit Letter of Commendation. She is also the co-president of Junior Historians and the Entertainment Editor of the school newspaper the Del.Aware. Furthermore, Mallon is the public relations chair of the Relay for Life committee and a member of Broadcast Del Val. She is a member of Student Council, National Honor Society and the lacrosse team. “I have met some of my closest friends through the activities I participate in,” Mallon commented. She finds time to teach religion at a local church and volunteer at various events such as the Veteran’s and Senior Citizen’s dinners held at DV. She volunteers for Relay for Life and the local Salvation Army. “Volunteer work has taught me to appreciate how lucky I am. I love being able to help other people in need,” Mallon said.
